The Hawaiian Mission Children's Society

THE ANNUAL MEETING

The Hawaiian Mission Children's Society met at the Old Mission Home on April 22nd at three o'clock, with President J. P. Cooke in charge.

The members were led in prayer by Dr. John T. Gulick, and united with Mrs. E. A. Weaver in singing, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

The young ladies' glee club of Oahu College, with Miss Smith as leader, sang a lullaby, soft, harmonious and dreamful, followed by a Dutch lullaby, so rollicking it might well set the winds and dream-fairies dancing among the sails of Holland.

The minutes of the Board of Managers were read and Dr. Emerson moved that the recommendations of the Board be accepted, barring the item referring to the size of the Annual Report. After some explanations Dr. Emerson withdrew his motion and G. R. Carter moved the adoption of the entire report.

Mrs. Theodore Richards, chairman of the literary program, read a synopsis of the Thaddeus journal from the time of reaching Hawaii to the time of landing at Kailua, prepared by A. C. Alexander, and continued the journal in full through the dates of April 1, 2, 3. She was, however, interrupted by Dr. Clark, who wanted ample time for business, first.

Dr. Emerson hoped the original spelling of Hawaiian names, as given in the journal, might be preserved.

The Treasurer's report was received, accepted, and placed on file.

The Recorder's report was read by A. B. Clark, accepted, and placed on file.

The Trustees' report for 1909 and 1911 was read and placed on file.

The collection for the day amounted to $32.50.

Hon. G. R. Carter made an eloquent address, telling of the Cousins' Society, with its first meeting in the old schoolhouse in 1852, when the constitution was formed which remained substantially the same till 1906. At that time the Society became a Memorial Society for the purpose of perpetuating the memory of the Fathers and Mothers of the Mission.

The Hawaiian Missionary Society, under the A. B. C. F. M. from 1823 to 1854, was composed only of ordained ministers. It then admitted lay members, and so continued till 1863, when the A. B. C. F. M. withdrew and the Hawaiian Evangelical Association assumed full control. This Evangelical Association now proposes to put up a memorial building, to be used in carrying on, actively, the work the Fathers began, a proposition which Mr. Carter characterizes as a "beautiful thing"—beauty being "the ideal made useful." "Let us meet them," he said, "in this great work. Let the Cousins have the proud distinction of owning the property which is to be given to the Hawaiian Board for its perpetual use, and then let us join with them in raising funds for the building. The Lahainaluna fund is available, and P. C. Jones, who gave the present building, now too small, is willing that it be sold and the proceeds applied to this. A handsome building can be erected here, a larger one than could be put up down town, and it would be here on King Street, where it would keep alive, by its active work, the early labors of the missionaries on the same grounds. There would be room in it for the Cousins' archives, records and relics, and a place for meetings, while in other parts of the same building would be going forward the work the missionaries began."

The only argument advanced against the proposition was that the Cousins Society might not always exist. This Mr. Carter answered by the statement that this Society cannot die. It is incorporated, and by its charter, so long as three members meet together it must exist. The Cousins want to assist the Hawaiian Board as in the long ago, and the two societies should harmonize and work together.

Dr. Emerson asked the size of the intended building and was answered by Mr. Carter that all such matters would be left to the Hawaiian Board.

At this point a double quartette of girls from Kawaiahao Seminary, under the care of Miss Jane Winne, sang in clear, musical tones, two beautiful selections, "My Garden" and "A Lullaby."

Mrs. J. P. Cooke read a paper from the continued journal of the Thaddeus, after which a short discussion took place between A. C. Alexander and Prof. H. M. Ballou, as to the precedence of this journal or the amplified journal in Boston.

G. R. Carter exhibited a portion of his collection of Lahainaluna engravings, some thirty of which have been found. He also stated facts procured in his researches as to the cost of the frame house, digging of well and building of the cook house.

The reading of the journal was then continued by Miss Carrie Green, Miss Mary Winne, and Mrs. Andrews. These told of:

Coming to anchor in Kailua bay on April 4th after 163 days from Boston; calling upon the king, chiefs and head "kahuna"; dining of the royal family on board, with a description of the king and his costume; an excursion on shore and dinner with the royal family; the negotiations; unexpected difficulties; the great meeting for final decision, where king, chiefs and honorable women, with the missionaries, were assembled, and which was broken up by a "hula" lasting many hours; the decision next day that two missionaries with their wives should remain at Kailua and the rest proceed to Honolulu; the landing of the Thurstons and Holmans; the goodbye; the sailing to beautiful, fertile Oahu; delay in landing at Honolulu; final permission to enter the harbor; the ladies visit ashore; kindness of white men, captains and agents; landing and storing of goods; and the first night ashore.

The meeting closed with the singing of "From Greenland's Icy Mountains." The decorations by Mrs. Weaver were artistic, and the well-filled rooms showed the need of a larger assembly hall.

THE SECRETARY'S REPORT

The Annual Reports for 1910 were received from the printer in August and immediately sent out, 625 by mail and 175 by hand, leaving nearly fifty.

During the year a few books for the Mission Library have been received, some crockery belonging to one of the earliest mission families, a very few autographs, part of a journal of Father Chamberlain's, written on the voyage to the Sandwich Islands in 1823, a journal of J. Evarts Chamberlain when a delegate to Micronesia, and another written while he was in the Civil War.

The cemeteries of Kawaiahao and Nuuanu Valley have been visited and records taken of the graves of missionaries. It was found that of the eighty nine Fathers and Mothers who died in the Islands, the names of thirty three may be seen in Kawaiahao cemetery and eighteen in Nuuanu Valley. There were ten buried in Hilo, four in Makawao, three in Lahainaluna, one at Lahaina, two at Kailua, two at Kohala, two at Kealahakua, two at Waimea, Hawaii, one at Waiohinu, one at Waimea, Kauai, one at Kapaa, two at Koloa, one at Lihue, one at Kaluaaha and two at Waialua, Oahu. We have not yet found the burial places of Rev. Wm. Richards, Stephen Shepard and Mrs. Elizabeth Rogers.

A digest has been made of all the Annual Reports since 1853, to facilitate the work of the Recorder in tracing genealogies.

With the efficient help of the Treasurer, L. A. Dickey, a number of Cousins, whom we had long since given up as lost, have been traced, and their addresses will appear in the name list.

Like the physician with a finger on the pulse of his patient, your Secretary has been listening to the breath of congratulation and pleasure, examining the tongue of criticism, marking the brightening eye of mutual sympathy, and thus has found that the greatest interest in the Annual Report seems to centre in the Roll-Call. Letters have been received asking what has become of Cousin——, and inquiring for the —— family; and so, for this year, we may be excused for omitting many items, shortening the records of the schools, and even for abbreviating the reports of our vanguard, the watchmen and workers in the islands beyond, in order that more space may be given to news from the Cousins.

OUR MISSIONARIES.

From Rev. Ph. Delaporte's account of the Nauru Mission, we quote the following:

“The Church—Another year is past and gone. A year which brought, not alone much sorrow and many trials to our people, but which also revealed God's love to them. Many, yes, very many who worshiped with us a short year ago have fallen asleep. It is, however, a great gratification to see that our labors were not altogether without results. Thirty-five persons united with the church, while several young people became active members of our Christian Endeavor Society. As a whole, a fine spirit prevails between the Caroline and Nauru natives. A large number of the Caroline boys have joined the church, while a still greater number attend services regularly. When these boys arrive they are generally dirty and filthy, but after a very short space of time their outward appearance changes for the better. The regular life they must lead and the good food they receive, as well as the work they are compelled to do, have a salutary effect.

The attendance of the Sabbath services has been satisfactory, and occasionally people have been turned away as the building proved too small. The smallest congregation numbered 263, while the largest attendance, including Caroline natives and Chinese, was above 1100. The usual Communion Sabbaths, which are always seasons of refreshing, were observed. Revival meetings with good results were held during the early part of the year. On Christmas day we conducted special services, while on Christmas eve we had our Christmas-tree and distribution of Christmas-boxes. On account of the present hard times there were few articles bought in the store. The people confined themselves to the giving of mats and other useful native articles.

Contributions were very small in 1910, which was to be expected, seeing that the Island suffers from a three years' drought. But notwithstanding the famine, the members of the Christian Endeavor Society gave twenty dollars toward the labor expenses of the new schoolhouse, and four-and-a-half dollars more for a flag for the same.

Our Miss Linke, who acted as organist and music teacher for nearly one and a half years, had to leave us in February, and for several months we were without church music. However, the good Lord raised up some one else to take her place. Mr. Stevens, a fine young man and fellow traveler of Mrs. Delaporte from Sydney to Nauru, volunteered to take charge of the musical department. He is a member of the P. P. Co.'s office staff, is a fine musician and plays the organ beautifully. Mr. Stevens took charge in June, and since then three other young men assist in training the choir, devoting much of their own free time to this work without remuneration.

The Schools.—The schools were well attended during the year, especially those at Menen and Ewa. Since Miss Linke left, the writer had to take charge of the schools at the outstations as well as of the principal school at Orro. The mornings are devoted to the latter while the afternoons are given up to the former. This leaves us very little time for translating and printing work. However, two of our best scholars are now married and have been installed as assistant teachers.

Mr. John T. Arundel of the Pacific Phosphate Company, Ltd., a great friend of Missions, donated the material for a new schoolhouse, valued at $600.00. The new schoolhouse is a fine and cool building, measuring 25 x 40 ft. It is not only used for school purposes but on the Sabbath Day the Caroline employees of the P. P. Co., conduct their prayer-meetings in it also. The vicinity of the Mission resembles a beehive on Sundays, as one meeting follows another, either in the schoolhouse or church. About two hundred scholars receive instruction in our four schools. The attendance is very regular. Because of our small teaching force, the Anebore school had to be closed during part of the year, the children now attending Menen and Ewa.

The Mission Press.—Several small books for school purposes are being prepared and will be printed as soon as possible. An edition of the Psalms is just going through the press and will be ready for binding during the year. A translation of Dr. Scudder's Bible Catechism appeared in print in 1910, but up to date we have had no time to do the binding. This little book, which has a supplement of several hundred Bible questions and their answers, will be used in the day-school.

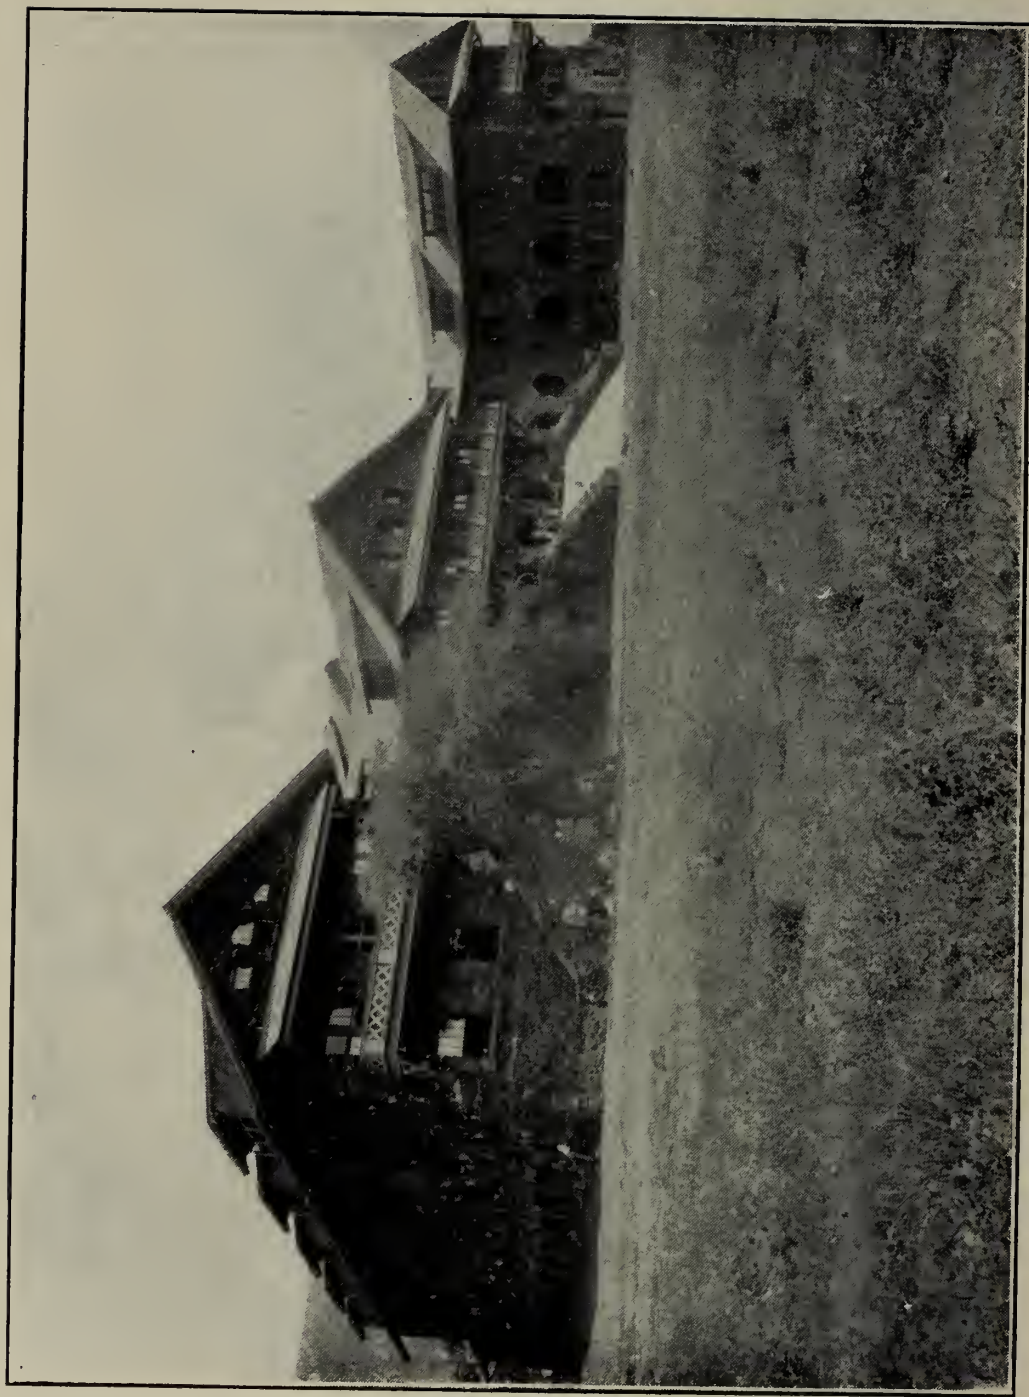

General Items.—The year of our Lord 1910 was a sad one for the little Isle of Nauru. Death and drought reigned supreme. The months of January and February, will not easily be forgotten. During the short space of three weeks forty-two young men and women died. Death was caused by a complicated form of influenza.

On Tuesday, Jan. 11, 1910, we were summoned to the east side of the Island where it was reported that two persons were dying. We notified the doctor, who accompanied us at once. When we arrived at the scene, one, a woman, was already dead and the other, a young man, lived only a few hours longer. Our doctor, seeing that the disease was contagious, ordered schools and church closed at once. That very night a wedding took place and everything was prepared for a big wedding feast to which hundreds of friends had been invited. They were informed that they must disperse. During the night several other young people died, and very little sleep could be ours for many nights to come. Dr. Muller, myself and wife were on the road most of the time. Two of our best young men were stricken, one died, while the other is still lame. Both were members of the Training-School. A few of those who remained paralysed after the epidemic had spent its force, recovered, quite a number died during the year, while others are still in a pitiful state. The drought, which lasted nearly three years, is to blame for part of this sad record. The lack of proper food increased the number of deaths during the epidemic. Among the four hundred laborers of the P. P. Co., who received abundance of good food and are well housed and cared for, not a death occurred.

Only two waterholes which supply drinkable water are left. The whole population has to go there for their daily water supply. We give rainwater from our own scanty stock to the children and sick. The water supply of the Mission in April was nil, but the good captain of the S.S. "Foxley" offered us 400 gallons of the precious fluid, which offer was gladly accepted. We were glad, in June, to receive from our Honolulu friends cement and other material for two large cisterns. The station can now store 15,000 gallons of water. Kind Chinese friends sent one ton of rice at the same time. This was gradually divided among the sick and needy. Early in Jan. 1911, the good people of Central Union Church, Honolulu, sent us 5000 lbs. more. With 2500 lbs. of this latter rice we gladdened, on Jan. 22 the hearts of about 100 sick and poor people. The balance is still in our hands to be given away as needed. The steamer also brought two cases of nice toys contributed by the children of Central Union S. S. They should have seen the faces of the Nauru boys and girls as each received a toy or book! It is more blessed to give than to receive.

In May an opportunity offered itself to your missionary to make a short visit of a week to Ocean Island and get a glimpse of the work done there by Bro. Channon. Although not too strong since his late severe illness, he and his good wife have accomplished a marvelous amount of work. It did the writer good to spend a week with this thoroughly missionary family.

Mrs. Delaporte, too, was absent for about four months, taking our own daughter and two native children to Honolulu where they were placed in different schools. Since then we have sent another boy to Honolulu, where he attends Mills Institute. We trust that these little half-white children will in due time return to Nauru as useful men and women.

Brighter days are in store for Nauru. God has heard and answered our prayers for rain. In January we had abundance of rain. The Island looks much greener again, and if rain continues for a few months longer, we may expect a cocoanut harvest at the end of the present year. In May or June sufficient young nuts ought to be available for drinking purposes. Until then the people will have hard times. However, we praise God for the brighter prospects."

Mrs. Delaporte also writes thankful letters about the Christmas toys.

We are sorry that we are unable to give any late news from our friends on Kusaie and Ponape.

OUR SCHOOLS.

Mid-Pacific Institute—On Nov. 26 occurred the Dedication of Mills Hall of the Mid-Pacific. This magnificent building of rough-hewn native rock and green-tiled roof is built upon an eminence which commands a view across Manoa Valley, beyond Diamond Head and out upon the broad Pacific. On looking mauka, there is seen a valley of leaf-embowered homes with the Rapid Transit winding about among them, and beyond, the cloud-capped mountains, all spanned by a brilliant Manoa rainbow. Ascending the double stairway and crossing the wide verandah with its massive stone pillars we enter the great chapel with its lofty arches overhead and its wide platform reaching across the room. This large audience-room, capable of seating one thousand persons, was quite filled, while in the gallery in the rear, all dressed in white, were over one hundred girls from Atherton Hall, Kawaiahao Seminary.

On the platform were seated the trustees, speakers and some of the teachers. The invocation was voiced by Rev. Mr. Oleson and a welcome to all given by F. W. Damon, president of the Board of Trustees. He told the short history of this school which has sprung up like a mushroom in the night. In 1905, the Board of Directors first met; in 1907 were received the first gifts, donations from Mrs. William F. Allen and Mrs. J. B. Atherton; in 1908 work began; in 1909 Atherton Hall, Kawaiahao Seminary, was opened, and work on Mills Hall commenced; and now, in 1910, are held the dedicatory ceremonies.

For this wonderful blessing of God on the institution Miss Bosh-er, principal of Kawaiahao Seminary, was asked to lead the schools in a glad thanksgiving service, and both schools united as with one voice in repeating Psalm one-hundred-fifty.

Dr. Doremus Scudder, in his earnest, eloquent manner, told of the gifts of fifty-seven acres of land, the two fine buildings, the money and friends God had sent to them. He felt that this school was ordained of God for the unifying of the nations and the making of all these people true American citizens.

Principal Merrill spoke, not only of the wonders wrought in these two years but of the future prospects in the academic, industrial and agricultural departments. A most exquisite humming chorus was rendered by the Kawaiahao girls under the direction of Miss Jane Winne, the chorus leader.

"Girdling the Globe in Twelve Minutes" was the title of a series of four addresses, each three minutes long. Rev. Okumura, the faithful father and teacher of many of the boys, spoke for the Japanese students in their own language, Tse Ki Uen for the Chinese students, Rev. U. S. Kim for the Koreans, and Rev. O. H. Gulick for both Hawaiians and English-speaking members. After a song, "The God of the Nations," sung by the Mills boys, the Treasurer's report was read by Mr. Theodore Richards, who announced that the school was "dedicated free from debt." Mr. Damon added that their patron, Hon. Geo. N. Wilcox, had added another princely gift of money and land to further promote the interests of the school. Rev. J. Wadman made the dedicatory prayer, the Institute Hymn was sung, the benediction pronounced by Rev. Poepoe, and as the twilight deepened and electric lights blazed out, the audience left for home feeling that in the opening up of Mills Hall in the Mid-Pacific Institute a wonderful enterprise in the Peace Movement and the Unification of the Nations of the World had been launched.

The doors of Mills Hall were opened to students Sep. 12th. Besides the boys from Mills Institute there were reinforcements from Mr. Okumura's Boarding School, and from the Korean Boarding-School of the Methodist Church. In November there were 184 students, of whom 87 were Chinese, 64 Japanese, 27 Koreans, 4 Hawaiians, 1 Marshall Islander, and 1 Filipino. In the girls' department, Kawaiahao Seminary there are 106 girls, making in all, in Mid-Pacific 290 students, with a faculty numbering over twenty-five ladies and gentlemen. The course of study, as now organized, ranges from the early studies in the grades up to High School work, commercial, industrial and agricultural work, with Oriental instruction, and last but not least, the advance of the kingdom of Christ, as sounded in the Institute Hymn of the Mid-Pacific:

"We've a message to give to the Nations
That all the world's great people
May come to the truth of God."

Maunaolu.—The year at Maunaolu has been a successful one. Last years pupils are back and many new ones have entered, and they have been well and happy. Because of sickness on Maui it was thought best to have no Christmas vacation. They did have a Cantata and a tree loaded with gifts. Mrs. Grace Haven writes, "Our pupils are very much interested in their studies, sewing and domestic work. We are fortunate in having a skilled dressmaker, and the girls are taking great pleasure in making their own dresses and other garments. We are doing very little fancy-work but a great deal that is practical and useful. We have also a fine domestic-science teacher, and the girls are learning to cook very nicely indeed. Our well-trained nurse is doing good work in her department, and the pupils are enjoying their physiology, both the science and the practical part. They are very much interested in their Bible studies, Sunday School lessons and Christian Endeavor. I feel that there is a need of true, deep, spiritual experience or genuine conversion, but we are trying to lead each one into the higher spiritual life, and now we must leave the rest with our Heavenly Father."

The teachers engaged this year at Maunaolu are Miss Eva Heuser who has been the efficient Principal for years; Mrs. Grace P. Haven, Miss Harriet Lay; Miss Gladys Vanderhoof; Miss Irene Balcom, instructor in music; Miss Mary Lay, instructor in sewing; Miss Estelle Balcom, nurse; Mrs. Buckenham, matron; Miss Kauai Morris, matron's assistant, and Shizai Tanaka instructor in lauhala; a larger faculty than ever before.

Kohala Girls School.—Miss McCormick, the Principal, spent her vacation in Japan, and returning, found repairs and needed improvements made. Fifty-six pupils were enrolled at the beginning of the year, and others were refused because of lack of room and lack of scholarships. Miss Bertha Clark, of the family of our Oakland Cousins has returned to her home, and Miss Claribel Bickford of Los Angeles, and Miss Gladys L. Grose, both Oberlin girls, have become members of the faculty.

Hilo Boys Boarding School.—The year opened well, the new pupils being mostly Hawaiians. During vacation the teachers and boys erected and fitted out a new three-room building, combining steam plant, dairy and poi-factory, the steam-plant connecting with the kitchen, the dairy and the poi-house. Mrs. E. H. Westervelt, who, for ten years had been identified with the school, resigned in June in order to place her children in college. Mrs. Helen Clowes has been added to the faculty. Mr. Nelson Stacy, who took the place of Mr. Yamamoto while he made a visit to Japan, remains, and now that Yamamoto has returned, the carpentry force, the busiest department in the school, is doubled.

Oahu College.—The play, “As You Like It,” given on the grounds by the Dramatic Club on the evening of May 21, exceeded the expectations of its friends. The Senior Class of 1910, the largest that ever graduated here placed on the campus a Sun Dial of native rock and bronze as a parting gift to their Alma Mater. President Griffith’s return from his year’s vacation was welcomed by all, and the school this year is unusually prosperous.

GENERAL ITEMS

The Annual Report closed, last year, in the midst of the war against tuberculosis and the saloons. The fight against the former continues, but the prohibition campaign resulted in a signal defeat for temperance, the plebiscite on July 26th showing a ballot of more than three to one against prohibition.

Halley’s Comet excited quite an interest in May. Scientists Lord and Codrington, who arrived on the 13th from Chicago, with our own astronomers, made a study of the phenomenon, photographing the same on the 18th. The observatory at Kaimuki, one of our swiftly growing suburbs, was very popular with Honoluluans and “comet excursions” were quite the fad.

On May 8 four large bronze tablets were dedicated in Kawaiahao Church, commemorating the lives of Rev. Hiram Bingham, Rev. Richard Armstrong, Rev. Ephriam Clark, and Rev. Lowell Smith.

On May 7 little Harold Erdman turned the first sod for the new Kaumakapili church, taking the place of his great grand-father, Dr. Lowell Smith, who, seventy-two years before, had officiated in the same manner at the erection of the first Kaumakapili church. On the 7th of August the cornerstone was laid for this new church, and now the building nears completion.

June, with its series of commencements, students' reunions, alumni meetings, and flittings, was succeeded by quiet. Rev. Dr. Newhall White arrived on the 14th to supply Central Union pulpit during a part of Dr. Scudder's vacation in Europe, and his eloquent sermons, also those of Dr. Henry Churchill King, president of Oberlin College, were greatly appreciated. Even with such efficient help, the Assistant Minister, Rev. A. A. Ebersole, found the double office with its series of weddings and pastoral duties a strenuous one.

The six weeks Summer School was unusually efficient and helpful and over two hundred teachers were in attendance.

The reunion of old Punahou students at the home of Judge Dole, on Aug. 21, to meet the long absent David B. Lyman, a distinguished member of the Chicago bar, and Mrs. Mills, was a very joyous occasion, as was also the hookupu given Mrs. Mills later by a group of "old girls" of the Mills period of Punahou school days, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Damon in their "Isle of Tranquil Delights."

Last year the success of the Y. M. C. A. in raising over $150,000 within a week was the pride of Honolulu. Then quiet reigned while architects were consulted, plans completed and old buildings demolished. When all was in readiness and the day arrived, Gov. Frear, at noon on October 26th, with pick and shovel, broke ground for the new Y. M. C. A. building. Immediately following, men were set to work excavating, and soon the walls began to rise. On Feb. 1st, 1911, the two cornerstones, one on Alakea and one on Hotel street, were laid with impressive ceremonies. Embedded in the first were placed the records which S. B. Dole, first President of the Society, deposited in the cornerstone of the old building, twenty-eight years ago, Judge Dole officiating at this time. The new records were placed in the Hotel street stone by a "future president" little Clarence H. Cooke, Jr. The whole ceremony took place in the open air, on the evening of a showery day, while the the clouds rolled back and the setting sun came out to brighten the scene with a halo of hope and cheer.

There have been other changes that may interest the absent. In the old Haalelea Lawn, so long the residence of chiefs and princes, the University Club has built a beautiful Club House which was opened in August.

A large, handsome, up-to-date Methodist church has been erected on the corner of Beretania and Victoria streets, and a new pastor, Robert Elmer Smith has taken charge.

The great Nuuanu Dam, away above Luakaha, was finished and accepted in August, and now there is no fear of shortage of water in the city. The Automatic Telephone System was inaugurated in August.

In November the new Kahului wharf was opened. The Oahu Railway celebrated its majority in November—twenty-one years having elapsed since the first train was run to Pearl City.

The Hilo Railroad Company, after many years of waiting, has been extending its line northward, having issued $1,000,000 worth of bonds for that purpose. Experiments are being made in cotton-growing, and the first cotton was ready for market on Dec. 4, 1910.

There is neither time, space, nor words to describe the exciting events of the closing year and the days of revelry in February. Santa Claus in an airship, coming down over the heads of the children in Central Union Sunday School, was a novelty; the Christmas-Eve Carnival which thronged the streets with horns and confetti, was an innovation; and the "Malihini" Christmas Tree, where society ladies stood on the Capitol grounds distributing gifts to 2500 happy children of all nationalities, was a sight displayed in no other city, even though the last of the long procession was drenched by a downfall of tropical rain.

On Dec. 31 and Jan. 1 and 2 a real aeroplane, named the Honolulu Skylark, sailed over the plains at Moanalua, and was witnessed by thousands, not only on the grounds but from the hillsides far and near.

In February Honolulu was filled with tourists, but, contrary to our expectations, "the wind and the rain together came down" and spoiled many an excursion, stopped the sea-bathing and surf-riding, and sent some guests home in disgust. But about the middle of the month the weather cleared.

The Kirmess, a brilliant exhibition of thirteen national tea-parties, was held on Feb. 18th at the old fishmarket, and although a whole block was enclosed for the booths of the different nations, the space was packed with people, and about $10,000 was taken in. After deducting the necessarily large expenses, the net proceeds were passed over to Palama Settlement work, which, you know, means nurses for the sick poor, pure milk for the babies, help for tuberculosis patients, and other reforms.

On the 21st was held the Elks' Carnival. The Shriners arrived that day also, one hundred and thirty of them with their wives, and went on to Hilo and the Volcano. The Floral Parade on the 22nd was decidedly the most beautiful, elaborate and artistic ever held in Honolulu; and at night the Lantern Parade of the Japanese, in honor of Washington, spontaneous, patriotic and elaborate, was a surprise to all. The next day the McKinley statue, in front of the High School building on Beretania Street, was unveiled, and an address delivered by Judge S. B. Dole, who knew and loved the martyred President.

Later a brief epidemic of cholera appeared and was met by the Board of Health with stringent treatment, and it has now happily disappeared.

On the night of Feb. 27, a coasting schooner, carrying valuable freight, was run into and sunk by the lighthouse tender in the channel south of Molokai. The crew of seven men were drowned, but the old captain, (seventy-six years of age and the hero of more than one such adventure), after a swim of twenty-one hours, aided by two bits of board, made a landing under the west end of Lanai, at a point remote from clothing, food, and friends. "Captain Sam" (Manu) says, in his simple faith, that he prayed to God to work a miracle in his favor by restraining the big rollers while he could climb over the shore rocks, and God did so. "This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his trouble."

THE ROLL-CALL OF COUSINS.

In the year 1819, nearly a century ago, when the first missionaries set sail for "The Sandwich Islands," they constituted and were spoken of as "The Family of Missionaries." This family grew by "Reinforcements" till there were about one hundred and fifty "Brothers" and "Sisters." All letters to each other at this time, even business notes on scraps of paper, were addressed to "Dear Brother ——" and "Dear Sister ——." We of this age cannot imagine the close tie of friendship and love that existed between them, joined as they were by years of loneliness and weary labor, common interests, mutual hardships, mutual cares, mutual high aspirations and mutual joys.

What more natural than that the children of these "Brothers" and "Sisters" should be "Cousins." Isolated as they were from all young companions, they looked forward for a whole year to the "General Meeting" when they could see each other, and then for a year they thought about, talked of, and wrote to these "Cousin" friends.

And when in 1852 one of their number, Dr. Luther Halsey Gulick stopped, with his bride for a short visit on his native soil before going on to establish a new mission in far Micronesia, it was natural that he should desire to have a Society of these same "Cousins," tried and true, to whom he felt sure he could turn for help and sympathy and fear no refusal.

In the address of the first President, Asa G. Thurston, before the Society in 1853, he says, "About a year since, the Mission Children were invited to meet at the 'Old Mission School-House' one Saturday evening, the object not being very distinctly stated, or, indeed, determined upon, except that in the minds of some there was a desire that once more we might meet our Cousin Halsey before he should take his final leave. We met, a goodly number of all ages, and kind thoughts were interchanged, and our hearts were made glad by seeing so promising and interesting a band of cousins as had, by that short notice, been brought together. The idea of our continuing thus to meet was suggested, and was so heartily approved by the cousins there present that a committee was appointed to draw up a plan for such meetings; which, having been by them reported at a subsequent meeting, was, with some modifications, adopted in the shape of our present Constitution and By-Laws, and on the 5th day of June, 1852, the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society was fairly ushered into the circle of kindred associations."

Years have passed. Seventy, or less than half of the one hundred and sixty-three original members of this Society, remain, but these few count as their own blood relatives, the children and the children's children of those friends of early days. The Adopted Cousins were known to them and loved by them so dearly as to be taken into the precious Cousinhood. But the family has grown till it numbers 966 active members, and these are scattered throughout the world. The Annual Report, with its Roll-Call, is the only way in which we can meet and keep in touch with each other, and we ask, first, for the sake of the older Cousins, and second, for what it will mean to future generations, that each member write a letter or postal each year, telling of the whereabouts and the doings of themselves and relatives.

The names of those heard from are arranged in the Roll-Call alphabetically, first for the Mission families, then for the Adopted Cousins.

Alexander (W. P.). The Golden Wedding of Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Alexander leads off as the most joyous occasion of the year. This was celebrated at "Maluhia," the family residence on Punahou street, on Monday, July 18. The house and lanais were filled to overflowing with guests, and under the golden wedding-bell—which had done service at his father's and mother's golden wedding—sat the stately and honored bride and groom of long ago. Near by were two of the bridesmaids, Mary Parker and Kitty Hall Jones, and the groomsman, Henry P. Baldwin. Among other guests at that wedding in 1860, and present in 1910, were Mrs. Sereno E. Bishop, Mrs. S. M. Damon, Mrs. Hayselden, Mr. Charles Hustace and Mrs. Dwight Baldwin.

Mottoes, fashioned by W. W. Hall in fern and mousefoot, on "tapa" now yellow with age, were hanging on the wall, and even the wedding dress, made in the hoop-style of that day, was on exhibition.

A paper dictated by Mother Bishop was read by Mr. Frank Damon. Mother Bishop, after renewing, at this golden milestone, the congratulations made fifty years ago, minutely describes the joyous preparations, the mixing of the wedding cake, the marriage, and the wedding journey over the mountains to Wailuku. This paper, too long to be reproduced here, may be found in the August "Friend" of 1910. A song, composed for Father and Mother Alexander's golden wedding, was sung by Mr. Philip Hall.

Very interesting addresses were made by Judge S. B. Dole and Rev. O. H. Gulick, who presented golden gifts from many friends. To these Dr. Alexander responded: (We quote in part.)

"My dear friends and pupils of the far distant past: I thank you heartily for your kind remembrance of an ancient pedagogue. As I look back to that time after the lapse of nearly forty years, its petty trials have faded and grown dim, while its nobler pleasures stand out more clearly in the picture gallery of memory. The life-long friendships then formed with so many choice young spirits are the most precious treasures of my life. Their after-careers I have watched with pleasure and pride. They have been engaged in every useful and honorable calling, and are counted among Hawaii's most patriotic and public-spirited citizens.

"And to our many other friends, let me say that we can not find adequate words to thank you enough for your kind remembrance of us on this occasion, for the many expressions of love and sympathy that have been pouring in upon us the last few days, for your beautiful gifts, but most of all for that true friendship which is far more precious than silver or gold which perisheth. We wish you each and all as unalloyed happiness as we have enjoyed here in Maluhia, and Heaven's richest blessings beside.

"It is remarkable that so many friends are present who assisted in that joyful occasion half a century ago. I have always thought that it was the jolliest and best-got-up affair that I ever attended. In fact I have had an affection for the dreamy, tropical old town of Lahaina ever since. On that particular day its streets seemed to be paved with gold, and at least one gateway to be made of pearl. I have made many mistakes in my life, but did not do so on that day, and all the romantic dreams of youth, 'the reveries of a bachelor,' have fallen far short of the real happiness of life."

We cannot quote more. A wedding-cake covered with golden frosting was cut by the bride of fifty years ago, as she cut the home-made bridal cake at Lahaina in 1860.

Wm. D. Alexander, son of the honored pair, came all the way from Arizona to attend the celebration, and after a short stay returned. Arthur C. Alexander and wife spent some weeks in Seattle, and their son, William—third generation—had a vacation surveying on the new railroad in Hawaii. Miss Agnes Alexander, after a course in Domestic Science, "never fails in cooking," according to fellow campers. She is the author of a new cook-book dealing especially with Island fruits. Miss Mary Alexander is in Europe. C. H. Dickey and his son, Lyle A. Dickey, returned from an around-the-world trip in May. Mrs. Grace Dickey Merrill has another son.

Mrs. S. T. Alexander is in Honolulu, caring for the children of her daughter, Martha, (Waterhouse), during her sojourn with her husband abroad.

Andrews (L.). Carl B. Andrews, son of Robert W. Andrews, is Civil Engineer on the Oahu Railway. Mrs. Mary Andrews Nott, in her restful home in Oakland, surrounded by her children, is always glad to meet old friends. Her daughter, Annie Brigman, has returned from New York City, where she was improving her technique. Mrs. Helen Thurston Alexander is rustivating in the woods of Oregon, at the home of her son, Fred. Alexander. Her home, the old Andrews homestead, "Koa Grove," with its long, double verandas, has been demolished, and in its place a pretty bungalow has been built. William Dean, son of Mrs. Maggie Hardy Dean, was married in Berkeley in April of 1910. A son, William Montgomery, was born to Mrs. Evelyn Burcher, daughter of William Andrews of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Lorrin Andrews, Jr., grandson of Wm. Andrews, has been made proud and happy by receiving a certificate of membership in the Cousins' Society.

Andrews (Seth L.). Mrs. G. P. Andrews and her daughter Winifred have been greatly enjoying, in anticipation, a trip to Europe in the near future.

Andrews (C. B.). Dr. and Mrs. Fred. Shepard (Fannie Andrews) are spending their second vacation in America. From some private letters of Mrs. Shepard's to her former teacher on Maui, Miss H. E. Carpenter, we take the liberty of quoting at length, not only because they tell of Cousins from whom we have not recently heard, but because of the great work they are doing in Turkey. She says, "My dear Miss Carpenter, I can not tell you how much I was touched when I found your postal of love and interest. It awakened all the precious memories of Maunaolu and brought to mind visions of the old school-room where I was the disciple of the kind teacher who introduced me into the wonderful mazes of Algebra, History, Latin and English Literature.

"It was well that many of the horrible things we have seen in poor, struggling Turkey were hid from my eyes! But now, after nearly thirty years of work there, we are at last receiving the answer to our many prayers, and the reward of our many days and years of work, as we see the new liberties coming to the people of that empire under the Constitutional Government. The Turks have not freedom to change their faith yet, and religious fanaticism is strong among the ignorant, but they have liberty to listen, to read, to speak and to write; and we feel that now, NOW is the time to work there as we never had such opportunities until the present time.

"When it became necessary for Dr. Shepard to leave the work on account of his health, I tried to get off from crossing the Atlantic again, but our children begged for our coming—and there is much to be done on this side for Turkey—so I consented to come for a few months.

"Our Alice graduated this year from Syracuse University, was married the last of August in my sister's cottage in Silver Bay, Lake George, to Mr. Ernest Riggs, the newly appointed president of Euphrates College, Harpoot, Turkey. It is a great joy that she can go to the land of her birth, two of whose languages she is familiar with. A large work awaits them both. The power of the American colleges in the East for training leaders can not be estimated. Our older daughter, Florence, was with us at Silver Bay through the summer and seems quite well, but the lung is still weak, and if she is not able to endure the northern climate, I shall take her to Carolina, Virginia, or the pine regions of Florida during the cold season. Lorrin graduated at the head of a large class in Orange, N. J., and has entered

Yale, expecting to take up medicine after his college course, beginning the preparatory studies while in college. He is a strong, athletic young man, an earnest Christian, and prominent in the Student Volunteer Movement.

“We enjoyed the various conferences of the Young People’s Missionary Movement at Silver Bay, and it is an encouragement to see young people of America waking up to the tremendous calls from non-Christian nations. We were at the Edinburgh World’s Conference and the American Board Centenary, and the inspiration of these wonderful gatherings will remain with us all our lives.

“Dr. and I find our headquarters with Sister Lucy in her home in Orange. I have been helping her in carrying on the Armenian Needlework Industries in which she has been engaged for fifteen years. The work has gone all over the large cities of Asia Minor as an outgrowth of her work in Aintab; and it is estimated that about 20,000 women earn a part or all their livelihood through needlework under the control of others who have forwarded the work taken up by us at Aintab. It is still called Hospital Work, because the spring of it first flowed from our hospital in dark days of famine. “Aintab” means “Springs of Healing.”

“Luella Andrews Kilborne lives near us. Her son Freeman is married and lives in New Haven. He is finishing his senior year in Yale as his health has compelled him to take his college course at intervals of other work. He is a graduate of a business college, and of Dr. White’s Bible School, New York, and he has preached a year at Oklahoma, where he met his bride. He has been around the world visiting missions and will probably become a home missionary. Grace Kilborne, this year’s graduate of Wellesley, is about to start to China to visit missions there with a view to engaging in Y. W. C. A. work there later. She is a splendid girl with a strong physique and a practical, all-around education. Norman, the youngest, the age of our Lorrin, is finishing in High School this year to enter Yale next.

“We hear frequently from Brother Lorrin in Hilo. His daughter Loraine is a Junior in the University of California, and we often have letters full of college spirit and activity.

“Samuel is in the book business in Chicago. It is said he has recently gotten out a Hawaiian story.

“Thank you for Mrs. Bishop’s letter. The memory of the youthful days, when with loving spirit she taught us at Lahainaluna is very sweet and precious.”

More about Dr. Shepard, and the honors and decorations bestowed upon him by the Turkish Government, also the recognition of his skill and service by the American Board, may be found in the “Missionary Herald” of October, 1910.

Since this letter was written, Mrs. Shepard’s brother, Lorrin A. Andrews, has gone to his rest, and his ashes lie with those of his father and mother in the little Mission cemetery back of Kawaiahao Church.

Armstrong (R.). Matthew Chalmers and Richard Armstrong, sons of William Nevens Armstrong, are both married and living in Hampton, Va. M. C. Armstrong has one little daughter, “Bus,” living. Francis, the younger child, lived only a few months. W. N. Armstrong’s only daughter, Dorothy, lives with her brothers at Hampton, Va. General Samuel C. Armstrong’s eldest daughter, Louise Armstrong Scoville, is living in a cottage on the grounds of the Hampton Institute, with her husband, who is treasurer of Hampton Institute, and four beautiful children. Little Armstrong Scoville is said to have much of his grandfather’s life and spirit. Mr. and Mrs. Scoville are making themselves useful in the “Great School” in various ways. Edith Armstrong Talbot is living, with her family, at Plymouth, N. H., and doing “organization work”—involving city improvement clubs and hygienic organizations,—with her father’s zeal. Margaret Marshall Armstrong, Gen. Armstrong’s youngest daughter, is a student at Vassar College. Her brother, Daniel Williams Armstrong, is in a military school in Washington, D. C., preparing to enter Annapolis Naval Academy.

Mrs. Alice Armstrong, widow of Gen. Armstrong, is in Berlin, Germany, with friends, having delightful and profitable experiences.

Caroline Armstrong Beckwith's daughter, Mrs. M. B. Hair and her four children, are still in Hamakuapoko, Maui. They have had a strenuous time with scarlet fever and were in quarantine for some weeks. Their illness was not serious but long drawn out. Ruth Beckwith Bullock, Dr. E. G. Beckwith's granddaughter, is a missionary with her husband in Nankin, China, and writes enthusiastically of her work among the Chinese. Miss Amelie Armstrong is the home-maker for Rudolf Banning on Hillside Avenue, Berkeley, Cal. Mrs. Ellen Armstrong Weaver is still ministering to the old Hawaiians at the Lunalilo Home, and Miss Jennie Armstrong is with her. Mrs. Clarisse Boedefeld, her daughter, was married on March 5th, 1911, in Kawaiahao Church to Mr. Morgan Akin Jones of Hudson, New York, where she will make her home in future, on the banks of the beautiful Hudson River. Henrietta Weaver Fangel is in Tokio, Japan, teaching English in Miss Teenda's school for Japanese girls. Judge Philip L. Weaver and his family are Honoluluites. Mrs. Weaver has been giving a series of lectures at Oahu College on the Principles of Art, which have proved both interesting and instructive, and were finely illustrated by many prints and photographs kindly loaned by an art collector.

The Armstrong Memorial Committee have decided upon a bronze replica of a portrait Bas Relief of General Armstrong to be placed at Oahu College, so closely associated with his boyhood in Hawaii. The original, sculptured by A. Bertram Pegram of London, England, will be presented to Hampton Institute by Mr. Van Duzen of New York, and is pronounced very satisfactory by the General's friends and family.

Bailey (E.). In January of last year was recorded the death of Mr. and Mrs. William Bailey, and on Nov. 5th the elder brother, Edward, after a short illness, passed away. The remaining brother, Charles, with his wife and daughter, is in California, as are also the sons of James Bailey, the son and daughter of William Bailey, and the son, daughter and four grandchildren of Horatio Bailey. Mr. Charles Bailey has been ill, we fear very ill, as we have been unable to receive answers to letters written.

Baldwin (D.). In May of last year Mrs. H. P. Baldwin made life-members of six of her grandchildren, but as the report was then in print, the names could only appear in the name-list. There are now more names to be inserted, as a daughter, Helen Gray Baldwin, has arrived at the home of her youngest son Samuel A. Baldwin; Harold Frederick Rice at the home of her youngest daughter, Mrs. Harold Rice, and on March 7, 1911, a daughter came to her son Arthur's home in Cleveland. Most of us know that Mr. Harry Baldwin is at Hamakuapoko, manager of the Maui Agricultural Plantation. He and his wife (Ethel Smith) have two children living, their oldest, little Leslie, having left them ten years ago for the Better Land. Maud Baldwin, now Mrs. Joseph Cooke, lives in Honolulu as you know, and has five children, all members of the H. M. C. Society. William Baldwin is a prominent practicing physician and surgeon in Honolulu. He and his wife have three children, also members of the H. M. C. Society. Arthur Baldwin is practicing law in Cleveland, Ohio. He married Miss Reba Williams of Cleveland and they have four children. Frank lives in Puunene, Maui, and is manager of Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar Plantation. He has three little boys. Charlotte, who married Harold Rice, lives near Puunene, at Kailua, Maui, and has two children. The youngest son, Samuel, and his wife (Kathrine Smith) have one daughter. Mrs. Baldwin says, "Altogether we have twenty-one grandchildren, and feel that we are greatly blessed in having so many to love."

"The Fred. Baldwin Memorial Home" is nearly completed. It is beautifully situated about half-way between Sunnyside and the church. There are four cottages and one main building, all connected by a covered veranda, two cottages on each side of the main building with a court between. There are twenty-eight bed-rooms, and it can accommodate fifty inmates. It is intended for old and poor white men from all the Islands, but Mr. Baldwin thinks one of the cottages will be used for Hawaiians from Maui. This is but one of Mr. Baldwin's benevolences, as he seeks to invest his money as a good steward of his Lord and Master. Mr. Baldwin has been quite ill, but we are happy to say he is greatly improved in health.

D. D. Baldwin and wife, although they celebrated their golden wedding more than three years ago, are apparently in good health, and are still living in Haiku. Mr. Baldwin has lately donated some valuable books to the Historical Society. Erdman Baldwin of Hilo has a son seventeen and a daughter twelve years of age. L. M. Baldwin of Wailuku has one daughter and six sons; Charles W. Baldwin, living in Honolulu, has one lovely little girl; B. D. Baldwin of Makaweli, Kauai, has three boys; Dr. and Mrs. Weddick, (Winnifred Baldwin), living in Wailuku, have a daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Murdock (May Baldwin), of Paia, have a daughter and a son. William A. Baldwin is married and lives in Haiku, as does his sister, Mrs. Lillian Atwater.

Baldwin (W. D.). After years in which we had lost the address of Mr. Wm. Dane Baldwin, we find that he is living at Groton, Thompkins Co., New York.

Bingham (H.). A clipping from a New Haven paper states that Dr. Hiram Bingham of Yale, professor of Latin-American history, and curator in the University Museum, will have charge of a Yale scientific expedition to Peru this summer. They will make explorations among the Inca ruins on the Peruvian plateaus—a part of the country at present unknown to science.

Mrs. Lydia Bingham Coan is comfortably situated in the Bingham home, is well, able to attend church, take long walks and make some calls. She has with her a niece, Miss Katherine Reynolds, and another niece, Miss Clara Sutherland, is in Honolulu.

Bishop (A.). This greeting, from Mother Bishop, is one of our most precious items:

“Honolulu, February, 1911—Again the watch-word ALOHA goes out to all the Cousins, far and near, from her who waits in quiet Manoa for the ‘opening of the door to the other room.’—The Heavenly Father deals very tenderly with me, even though dimness of sight overshadows me. ‘In the morning there shall be light.’ Good-bye.”

CORNELIA A. BISHOP.

Mother Bishop, who saw Halley’s comet seventy-five years ago, was able in May, 1910, to gaze into the sky till she saw a brightness—the comet or something beyond—that made her happy and did her good. Then her daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Bishop, a very angel of consolation, came, and together they went over the papers and letters of long ago, assorting and disposing of precious relics. When Mrs. John went home she took with her Margaret Shaw, the prop and support of the family in their sorrow, and now Margaret is thoroughly enjoying school life with her cousins at Forest Grove, and preparing for Mt. Holyoke College. Later, Jessie returned from Columbia University and her European trip, and opened an Art Studio. Ruth continues a valued teacher in the Normal School. Mrs. Dalton, (Helen Hillebrand), is living at Seattle, among happy surroundings, and is greatly enjoying domestic life, though she longs sometimes for Honolulu climate.

Bond (E.). The Bond family stands first this year in the number of marriages, as there have occurred three weddings since April. Mr. Robert Bond was married in Berkeley, on July 30th, to Miss Rowena Katherine Elston. On June 25th, Mr. Joseph Bicknell and Miss Mary Scott Wood were married in Muskegon, Mich., and on Sept. 6th, also at Muskegon, was held the wedding ceremony of our Nellie Bicknell and Mr. John Francis O’Brien. Mr. O’Brien is engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in Buffalo, N. Y., but their home is in the suburbs, at East Aurora, and Mrs. O’Brien at first found life, shut in by cold weather, rather lonely while her husband was away in the city, but now that she is acquainted she likes it better. Mr. B. Howell Bond has entered Valparaiso University, and his sister Alice will graduate this year at Oahu College.

Castle (S. N.). Mr. and Mrs. Marx, Mrs. Claire Williams and her daughter, Ethelwyn Castle, have returned from a prolonged European trip. Mrs. Harriet Coleman has announced the arrival of a grandson, Northrop Haviland Castle, on Nov. 3rd, 1910, in New York City. W. R. Castle, wife and daughter spent the summer in Europe. Their son, Alfred Lowrey Castle, has built a beautiful residence in Nuuanu Valley, and to it he and his wife have welcomed their first-born son, Alfred Castle, Jr. Mr. George Castle took his wife and daughters to the Coast in early winter, but he himself was obliged to return to a more salubrious climate. Mr. and Mrs. Westervelt, with their son Andrew, are at present at their Waikiki beach home. Mr. James Castle and Mr. Harold Castle also reside at Waikiki.

Chamberlain (L.). Mr. Warren Chamberlain, 80 years of age, and for many years unable to hear the human voice, is in his usual health, and with his brother Levi deeply interested in the Cousins' plans. He has just brought to the O. M. H. Library, for safe keeping, a part of his father's journal of his passage around the Horn with the first reinforcement in 1823. He also brought a journal of his brother, J. Evarts Chamberlain, when he went as a delegate to the Marquesas Islands, and another when he was in the Civil War, telling of the battle of Vicksburg and the blockade on the Mississippi.

Rev. Horace Chamberlain has had a year's leave of absence from his arduous Settlement work and he and Mrs. Chamberlain will soon leave for the mainland. W. W. Chamberlain and wife with their two little children live in Honolulu. Miss Martha Chamberlain, "Aunt Mattie" to all the Cousins, is still waiting for the door to open to "the city of pure gold." When asked if she wished to send "Aloha" to the Cousins, she said, "Yes, indeed! And tell them—tell them—this is almost the end."

Clark (E. W.). Mrs. Sedgewick from California, daughter of A. B. Clark, visited her sister, Mrs. Balding, in Hilo, and spent some weeks with her father and brother in Honolulu. It has been a real treat to have Mrs. Carrie Austin in Honolulu for a short visit. Mr. Jonathan Austin, from the rubber country of Nahiku, Maui, made us a flying visit, and Herbert Austin of Kohala has his children in Oahu College, one of whom, Marion, graduated last June. Dr. and Mrs. Baker, (Harriet Austin), spent some months at the Coast, and soon after their arrival at Honolulu they greeted their new daughter, Ruth Caroline. All three then proceeded to their home in Kona, to be welcomed by the mother and grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Baker.

Mrs. Charles K. Clark is well and still living in Berkeley. Her daughter Bertha, who returned last summer from Kohala Girls' School, is with her. Mr. Fred. Clark with a wife, four sons and a daughter lives in Berkeley, as do Walter and his wife with their son and daughter. Webster married a Los Angeles lady and they and their little girl live in the city of flowers, while Clarence with his wife, son and daughter have recently moved to Napa, Cal. Ernest and his pretty, black-eyed Irish lassie, and sturdy boy, Ernest Montgomery, live in Honolulu.

Coan (T.). Mrs. Waters, (Sarah Coan), keeps in close touch with all "kamaainas" going to New York. Her brother, Dr. T. M. Coan, has been many years at 70 Fifth Avenue, home and office in the same apartment. He has lately been elected a member of the London Authors' Society, a great honor, and a recognition in this case of a high standard of literary attainment.

Conde (D. T.). Rev. Samuel L. Conde, D. D., living in Los Angeles, Cal., is in good general health, but suffering from partial loss of eyesight which deprives him of the privilege of reading. His wife and daughters, Agnes and Edith, are at home, the latter being Religious Secretary of the Y. W. C. A. of that city. The second daughter, Bertha, whom we met on her around-the-world trip a few years ago, is located in New York as a National Secretary of the Y. W. C. A., and will go to Constantinople in April to attend the World's Student Conference to be held there.

Charles Conde resides in Germantown, Pa., and is engaged in business as an inventor and designer. He was married about thirty years ago and has no children.

Henry Conde has been a resident of Indianapolis for the past fifty years, was married about thirty years ago, and has two living sons—Henri, married and living in Indianapolis, and Boyd, a student in a Polytechnic Institute. Mr. Henry Conde has been for many years President of a large implement company, and is still in active business. Mrs. Lucy Conde King resides with a son and daughter, in Rockford, Ill. Her elder daughter, Leila, lives with her husband and two children on a ranch in South Dakota. Pauline Conde is at Rockford, Ill., and Mr. Dickson (husband of Susan C. Conde) and two unmarried daughters are residing in Chicago.

Cooke (A. S.). Three new members have joined the Cooke family during the year. Joseph Ballard Atherton, son of Frank Cooke Atherton, arrived Nov. 6, 1910; Albert Francis Cooke, son of George P. Cooke, came on Dec. 28; and Alice Cooke, daughter of Clarence H. Cooke, arrived June 5th.

Miss Alice Cooke, the young aunt of these children, has established a kindergarten on Liliha Street, Palama district, from which emerge, daily, streams of happy children in Oriental costume. Miss Kate Atherton, another aunt, has also built, and now sustains, a kindergarten at Kakaako, near the Mission where her mother's assistance has enabled the good missionaries, Mr. and Mrs. Rider, to drive out saloons and to improve physical and moral health conditions in that submerged district.

Mrs. J. B. Atherton has made her grandson, Joseph Ballard Atherton, a Cousin, and Miss Kate has made her sister-in-law, Mrs. Alexander Atherton, a member of this Society. These we bid a hearty welcome. The daughters of C. H. Atherton brought some girl friends home with them from Mills College, and enjoyed a merry vacation. Mr. Theodore Richards has been to Japan in the interest of International Peace, and has established "Friend" scholarships for the Mid-Pacific-Institute. His children, Ruth and Atherton Richards will graduate at Oahu College this year and then go east to finish their education.

Mr. Frank Cooke and daughter Margaret enjoyed a trip to Alaska during the summer months, and Miss Juliette, having finished the course in Domestic Science at Columbia College, accompanied her mother home. Since then, the loved grandmother, Mrs. Lydgate, has passed away, at her home in Kaimuki. Miss Grace Cooke is back from her extended tour of Europe. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cooke made a short stay on the mainland, and now C. H. Cooke and family have gone for a long stay abroad.

Damon (S. C.).—Henry Damon, son of S. M. Damon, returned from Scotland during the year. Miss May Damon has been interesting herself in the Malahini Christmas tree, the Kirmess and other charitable deeds. Douglas Damon was quite ill but has recovered.

Of the family of the late Edward Damon, Fred B. Damon, married two years ago, is in Honolulu, in the Bank of Hawaii. Will Damon is in the Harbison-Walker Refraction Co., in Chicago. Maurice Damon is married and living in Albany, N. Y. He is with the firm of Boardman & Gray, in the piano business. Miss Ethel Damon, with her friend, May Kluegel, spent the winter in Bremen, Germany; and their plan is to remain in Italy from April till October, spend the coming winter in Munich, and then to visit Paris and London before returning home in July 1912. Mr. and Mrs. Giffard and their son, Walter Damon Giffard, have just gone to the coast.

Mr. Frank W. Damon has given his untiring energies this year to the Mid-Pacific Institute. His daughter, Mrs. Dr. Putman of Kauai has proved a great addition to the society of the Garden Island. Miss Vera is a very successful kindergartner at Kalihi Settlement, and Cyril Damon expects to graduate at Oahu College in the class of 1911.

Dibble (S). Mrs. Grace Haven, who has been six years at Maunaloa, Maui, writes that she enjoys the work with the girls more and more each year. Her sister Mary, Mrs. Drum of Berkeley, Cal., is very happy in having her daughter Emily, Mrs. Wilkie, at home with her. Mrs. Wilkie is in the press department of the University of California, and doing very fine work there. Her son, William Pierpont Drum is Civil Engineer and has charge of a party of Civil Engineers in Oregon. Mrs. Clara P. Cowperthwaite also lives in Berkeley. She is delighted with her little grand-daughter, Marcia Nye. Her son, James Pierpont is student in the University of California.

Dimond (H.). Mr. Harry W. Dimond of San Francisco is the happy father of a son, who arrived December 20, 1910. Mrs. Stangenwald and Mr. Edwin H. Dimond are quietly enjoying life in their Honolulu homes. Mr. Albert Waterhouse (son of Julia Dimond Waterhouse) with his wife and daughter, lives at the Peninsula. Mr. Waterhouse gave to the Board of Health the use of his poi factory, at cost, during the cholera epidemic. He and his cousin, F. P. Waterhouse are largely engaged in the Rubber industry. His sister Mary, Mrs. Corbett, resides at Middletown, N. Y., and his sister Eleanor, Mrs. Wood, with her husband and son are in Berkeley.

Of the daughters of Mrs. Sarah Dimond Kinney, Mrs. Helen Kinney Simpson lives in Denver, Colorado; Mrs. Frances Kinney Dickey whose husband, son and daughter are all members of this Society, lives in Oakland; and Mrs. Anna Kinney Hobron lives in Berkeley with her husband and two daughters, one of whom we hope to have in Honolulu before the year rolls by.

Dole (D.). Judge and Mrs. S. B. Dole are to have a well earned vacation this summer, extending their travels to Europe. They will be greatly missed, for not only on the judicial bench, but on every platform representing benevolence, education and progress, Judge Dole's venerable figure may be seen, and his words of wisdom add value and weight to every good cause. James Dole and the Pineapple Industry are almost synonymous terms, but to Mr. Dole and his wife (Belle Dickey Dole) the two little boys, Richard and James Drummond, mean greater riches than all the Pineapple Products.

Mrs. George Dole's letter is a storehouse of information, as she tells of the families of brothers and sisters as well as of her own. Of her own thirteen children she mentions the following: "Walter's family is at present in Portland, Oregon, but as his work in civil engineering takes him into the mountain regions of Washington, and during the summer his family may camp there too, his address is not a permanent one. He has three living children, Richard, ten years old, Elizabeth Dagmar eight years; and Norman Dorset, seven years of age. Herbert is with the Civil Service Co., in New York City, an architect, but his home is in West Orange, N. J., and he goes to his office in New York every day. Marion has two boys, eight and four years old. Wilfred is in the lumber business and lives at Aloha, Washington. He was married two years ago, to Miss Hazel Traphagan, and they have one son, Wilfred Heinrich Dole, Jr.

Emerson (J. S.) A Memorial Arch was erected at Waialua, Oahu, Nov. 15, to the memory of Father and Mother Emerson, who spent their lives, mostly, from 1831 till their death at that place. Their oldest son, Samuel N. Emerson, died in Honolulu, on Aug. 12, 1910. Joseph S. Emerson, with his wife and son, returned in September from a prolonged stay in Switzerland, bringing with them the health and vigor of Alpine dwellers. Mrs. Emerson has since been giving travalogues at various schools. Arthur Emerson, son of Dr. N. B. Emerson, has entered Stanford University, and his mother spent some months at the coast. Paul Eliot Emerson, son of Dr. Justin Emerson, was married in October, 1909, to Miss Grace Elizabeth Vary. Rev. O. P. Emerson is preaching at East Providence, R. I.

Gulick (P. J.). Rev. Edward L. Gulick has removed to West Lebanon, N. H. The eightieth birthday of Rev. O. H. Gulick was celebrated October 7, 1910. The number of his years and venerable appearance, however do not accord with his present active life as member of the Hawaiian Board, superintendent of Hawaiian work, senior superintendent of Japanese work, editor of Ka Hoaloha, resident manager of the Nauru mission, etc., nor did his brave and manly defence of what he thought right, in the face of an army of opponents, shield him from scurrilous attacks which need no refutation but a resume of his honorable life of eighty years. Both Mr. and Mrs. Gulick, who celebrated their golden wedding six years ago, are well and happy, absorbing sunshine and radiating joy.

Dr. John Gulick has reached a time of literary leisure, and is crystalizing his life in scientific investigation. Mrs. Gulick is busy in Christian service. Their son Addison has a fellowship at Toronto College, Canada, this year, and Miss Louise is studying medicine at Johns Hopkins University.

Rev. Wm. Gulick has returned to Barcelona, Spain, and his daughter Bessie has married Prof. George L. Lincoln, of Harvard University.

Mrs. Alice Gulick, widow of the late Thomas L. Gulick, passed away January 14, 1911, at Honolulu. Miss Julia Gulick has been solicited, and has consented to remain a worker for the Woman's Board, among Japanese women.

Hall (E. O.). Mr. W. W. Hall, who presided at our last Cousins meeting, passed away on May 24th, less than a month after the meeting. The Halls have sold out their shares in the firm of E. O. Hall & Son. Edwin O. Hall has moved to Bangor, Maine. Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Hall with their little son, Seymour Houghton, have moved to Oakland. Philip Hall, who has been delighting Honolulu with his fine tenor voice, left in Feb. to continue his studies at the Coast, and is greatly missed. Mrs. Florence Hall Macintyre, with husband and daughter, has been spending some months at the Peninsula, and Miss Charlotte and her mother have moved into the cottage in the yard of the Hall homestead on Nuuanu Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Jones, whose frequent gifts to Punahou, Palama, American Board and other benevolences have been a blessing to Hawaii, remain in Honolulu, as do their children, Mrs. E. A. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Gartley and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, and the nine grand-children. Mr. E. O. White with his wife and son live in Honolulu, and his brother-in-law, Rev. Frank H. Palmer, and son, Herbert Hall Palmer, are in Boston, Mr. Palmer being an editor.

Hitchcock (H. R.). A remarkable Art Exhibit of over fifty of D. Howard Hitchcock's best paintings was held at the Kilohana Art League's rooms in March. Some were scenes from Lower California where he spent the summer, and some were Island views. Some of these were "The Surf-rider," poised on the crest and balancing himself upon the incoming wave; "The Surging Sea" where the restless, tossing, seething waves dash against the solid rocks and sink away leaving trickling streamlets behind; "Moonlight" on Island waters, as it tints the clouds above and the sleeping waves, and leaves in shadow the Hala tree and the canoe drawn up upon the beach. This is a restful scene, while "Sunset at Waialua" is gorgeous in coloring. In this the sun, just disappearing behind the Waianae mountains, glances back with a radiant, parting smile upon the quiet water and sandy beach and kisses the young cocoanut tree upon the shore.

Mr. Hitchcock has reached the point where the technique does not trouble him, where the work is a joy, and he has only to catch the spirit of nature, fix it in memory and transfer it to the canvas. This he has done in these paintings.

Charles Hitchcock has returned from Cuba and is on the new R. R. extension on Hawaii. Mrs. Loebenstein and one married daughter live in Alameda, Cal., and one daughter is in Hilo.

Miss Almeda Townsend, who has been in Mindanao with her father and mother, will soon be here on her way East to take up special studies. David Townsend is in Cornell and his brother is near him.

Mrs. Mary Castle Hitchcock, her daughter Harriet, and her son Edward's daughter Hildreth, live in Hilo, as does Mrs. Mabel (H) Schoen and her little family. Of Rexford Hitchcock's sons, the oldest, Harvey Rexford, Jr., is at Harvard University while his two younger brothers are in Oahu College.

Hyde (C. M.).—Mrs. C. M. Hyde has been in New York City. Miss Ruth Hyde, daughter of Mr. Henry Hyde is expected for a visit in Honolulu this summer. Mr. Charles Hyde is married and has a daughter two years old.

Ives (M.) Rev. Joseph B. Ives writes, "I received the Report of the H. M. C. Society in which I was much interested. I recognized in the cut of the Chamberlain House the place where I once lived, and the room where my sister Hattie was born. My thoughts often go back to those old times and associates, and I have often thought if I should live my life over again my work should be in my native land. In 1876 I met Dr. Damon at the Centennial and he tried to persuade me to go to the Islands, but I had accepted a call to a church in Kansas, and was on my way there. It was through Dr. Beckwith's influence that I came to California. He considered it a very important field and one of great need. Dr. Beckwith did more to mold my life than any other man, and I have a profound reverence for him. My father was in America at the age I needed counsel. I have enjoyed my work in California and have settled down to spend the remainder of my life with the people I served so long. I often think of Robert Andrews. The first time I met him was in Lahaina. I thought his engraving was wonderful, and I remember at the Royal School the girls would get him to letter their maps. It is not often that I have the opportunity of meeting the Mission Children, and I am glad the Society is organized and the effort made to keep in touch with them. It is a great privilege to be a descendent of those missionaries. God has used them in carrying out His divine purposes.

Mr. Harlan Page Ives, after sending some valuable statistics to the Recorder, and some money to the Treasurer, says, "Seventy years ago last August, Father Thurston was in a canoe on his way from Kealakekua to Kailua. He had in his keeping a small bundle which he was to deliver at the latter place. It was in the night, and for some reason they were not allowed to land for several hours. I was in that bundle, and to protect me from the night air, Father Thurston took off his coat and spread it over me. I was only a few days old and my mother was not expected to live.

Mrs. Ives was asking me, one day, about the Cousins, and I told her I remembered that when I was a little boy, Robert Andrews sang once in church in a male quartette, and how delighted I was with his singing. I am very gratified to know that we are not forgotten after all these years, and it gives me much pleasure to respond. Your mention of the little stone house and the Old Mission Home is very touching. I expect in the future to take more interest in the Cousins, and hope to have my children rightly value their birthright as descendents of the Sandwich Island Missionaries.

Johnson (E.). Miss Frances Johnson and her sister Ellen are still at Pearl City. Miss Frances Bindt is a faithful teacher in the Royal School, and her brother Rudolph Bindt with his interesting little family lives in Honolulu. Miss Johnson says, "There is very little to tell about our family. Nearly two years ago my brother Henry left his old home in Petaluma and moved to the more salubrious climate of San Diego. Lizzie and Julia are living at their home about two miles from Santa Cruz—Lizzie's health has not been good the last year. No great changes among the younger members of the Fyfe family. David, the oldest son, has lost his faithful wife who left three little ones motherless. Julia Fyfe is married and has a home of her own. I know of no other changes.

It is a great pleasure to me to hear of absent Cousins. To me it is a precious inheritance to be a Cousin. The memory of the dear Fathers and Mothers will remain with me as long as I live, and my heart rejoices that God brought to these Islands such a noble band of men and women. I have some letters that father and mother wrote in their first years of missionary work here, that you can have if you think best." Thank you, the Cousin's Society is soliciting just such records and mementoes.

Judd (G. P.). Mrs. A. Francis Judd, and Miss Agnes Judd are visiting on Maui. Besides the many weddings recorded in the Judd family last year, the announcement of two others, that of Charles Sheldon Judd to Miss Louise Luquiens, in June, and Gerrit Parmelee Judd to Miss Marguerite Folke in April, came too late to be noted in the Report. Hon. A. F. Judd is a member of the Senate this year. Rev. and Mrs. Henry Judd are rejoicing in a son, David Stewart Judd; Sophie Judd Cooke has another son, Albert Francis Cooke, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wight have named their boy, Sanford Wilder Wight.

Hon. G. R. Carter and his family have made a leisurely trip around the world, visiting Japan, China, Philippines, Singapore, Egypt, and touring Europe at their own sweet will—a delightful way of traveling. The Wilder families have also spent the year in traveling. Mr. S. G. Wilder has returned and others are expected soon. Mr. G. P. Wilder is finishing a trip undertaken for the purpose of finding the habitat of the twenty-six unidentified Hawaiian plants and fruits. He is now in San Francisco and has found all but four. Mr. J. A. Wilder is at present in Paris. Miss Helen Wilder spent some months with her mother in Honolulu. Mrs. Laura Wight and daughter Ella are in Germany. "Aunt Nellie" Judd had a fall in Jan., which rendered her quite helpless, but she was able, in Feb., to send a smiling "Aloha" to the Cousins abroad.

Mrs. Laura Dickson Sherman whose home is in New York, is spending a few months (with her husband) on Hawaii nei, fitting up a beautiful home in Nuuanu Valley, rising early and overseeing two gardeners and wishing for fifty more. Scott Pratt, son of Dr. J. S. B., and Katie Dickson Pratt, is attending the College of Hawaii, and his brother Joshua graduates this year from the High School. Mrs. Emily Judd, her youngest daughter, and some of her son Charles children are in Germany.

Kinney (H.). Mrs. Selma Kinney is living in her artistic home on Anapuni street, and her daughter Maud having returned from abroad is with her. Her son Henry, we hear is residing in Hilo.

Leadingham (J.). From Mrs. Leadingham's letter we cull a few items. "It is a pleasure," she says, "to be included in the Roll-call. Mr. Leadingham's health is much better. Pomona is a growing place and we may expect his insurance business to grow with the town. Grace graduated from Oberlin last June and is teaching a country school in S. E. Arizona, in the mountain district. Next year she has the promise of a good position and we hope it may be near home. Marjory went back last fall to Oberlin College. Gertrude will graduate from the High School in June. Russell, in the first year High School, has grown suddenly from a boy to a man. Don, in the 7th and Lester in the 5th grade, each have paper routes, and all the boys earn their own clothes.

Lyman (D. B.). David B. Lyman of Chicago, and his wife, arrived in Honolulu June 26, for a two month's visit with his brothers in Hilo, his sister Mrs. S. W. Wilcox on Kauai, and other friends. The serious illness of Judge F. S. Lyman and Mr. Rufus Lyman hastened his departure to Hilo. Mr. Lyman left the Islands in his boyhood, fifty years ago, and returning finds many changes. In an address to old Punahou schoolmates at Judge Dole's on Aug. 31st, 1910, Mr. Lyman said in part: "Kukui candles, tallow dips and whale oil lamps are replaced by gas and electric lights, and the cosy grass houses by substantial homes of wood and stone. Even the food has changed; the poi, fish, cocoanuts, cocoanut-water, sugarcane, limu, luau and kalo being superseded by other articles, sometimes for the worse." "But the grand old hills and mountains in every part of the Islands, are unchanged; the blue sky and old ocean and swiftly rolling surf are as they were." "Fifty years ago," he said, "I visited Kilauea from Hilo, traveling on foot, taking two days to reach the volcano. Another day was consumed in descending to the depths of the crater and passing by slow and painful steps to the Lake of Fire. Within the last few days I visited the same crater, going by automobile from Hilo to the volcano, staying in the luxurious hotel on the brink of the volcano, and then by swift passage in an auto, almost to the Lake of Fire. We have had the joy and privilege to ride over roads and through scenery unequalled in any part of the world; the drive to the top of Punchbowl, through the Nuuanu Valley, over the Pali and around the island of Oahu; on Kauai from Lihue to Waimea and from Lihue to Hanalei; and from Hilo to Kalapana, and from Hilo to Kilauea, and the wonderful automobile road from the Volcano House to the Lake of Fire—Halemaumau—equal and perhaps surpass the drives in Switzerland and Italy, or even what is called the finest drive in the world, the road along the shores of the Bay of Naples from Sorrento to "Castle-de-mere." He says, "I have been greatly impressed by the cosmopolitan character of the people. The dear, lovely, true-hearted Hawaiian is giving place to a more mixed and new people. Hawaii is the Melting Pot of the Pacific and is molding many nationalities into a new life that will be better and stronger than any before us."

Mr. Rufus A. Lyman died July 6, 1910, with his large family about him—all, excepting Lieutenant Lyman of the Cavalry branch of the U. S. A., Lieutenant Lyman of the Engineer Corps, U. S. A., and Cadet Corporal Lyman of West Point.

Lyons (L.). Miss Fidelia Lyons is in Honolulu. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lyons, their daughters, Emma and her sister Mrs. Lewis of Hilo, are in their usual health. Mrs. Hay writes of seed time and harvest, success and failure, as experienced in Oregon farm life. Mrs. Curtis Lyons has given us the reading of two letters, one from Dr. A. B. Lyons and one from his daughter, Miss Lucia. Dr. Lyons describes, graphically, a flitting from their former house on Brainard St., Detroit, to their new home, 102 Alger St., three miles distant. "Ones rootlets become very numerous and firmly fixed in fourteen years" he said: "In the attic half the wall space was occupied with wide shelves packed full of specimens, books and magazines. We disposed of one wagon-load, and then it took two trips of the vans to carry the rest." Briefly, they worked all Friday and Saturday at the packing, and on Saturday night Dr. Lyons fell sick; but prompt attention and two days in bed relieved him of dangerous symptoms. In the meantime extra duties fell to the share of Mrs. Lyons, "who was working to the point of exhaustion, and moving was deferred to the last day possible. At the time of writing, Thursday, they were "tumbled in pell-mell with carpenters and painters," "everything piled into the dining room," and eating, picnic fashion, food prepared by kind neighbors.

Miss Lucia's letter from North China tells in her happy style of Christmas preparations and Christmas celebrations in the school and in the mission; of the rehearsal of Scripture passages, translation of music into Tonic-sol-fa, teaching of songs, gymnastic drills, making candy and cakes for the girl's Christmas, the decorating, and the distribution of cards, paper-dolls and ribbons sent from home; and she tells it as if it were all child's play. The arrival of company about midnight in carts that should have reached them hours before, and the reception, dressed as they were in all kinds of negligee, the preparation of cocoa and other refreshments, the stories of their adventure and the laughter—all sounds joyous and easy. Only those know the cost, who are able to read between the lines.

Paris (J. D.). Miss Anna Paris, who responded last year from Washington, D. C., returned in December, is now visiting on Hawaii, and will soon be back in Honolulu. Her little booklet of poems, "Songs of Hawaii," her little waif she calls it, is full of gems of beauty. She has promised a copy to the Society, and we are happy to have it in our slowly growing library. Miss Ella Paris is a member of the school-board of Hawaii. Miss Mae Paris, eldest daughter of John D. Paris, was married in 1909, to Mr. Raymond W. Smith, son of A. H. Smith, formerly of Koloa, Kauai, thus blending two other mission families. They have a little boy, Raymond Paris Smith.

Parker (B. W.). Rev. Henry H. Parker, when not making pastoral calls, may usually be found in his large cool study at the rear of Kawaiahao church. Here are also the best equipped Sunday School rooms in the city; and the old coral church to which Mr. Parker has ministered for forty-eight years is fitted with tablets of interest, and royal pews which all tourists should see. The Parker home, which most of you remember on beautiful Judd St., across from Mrs. Wilder's, is little changed. In the mauka end of the veranda, where ferns and palms are sheltered from wind, is a large lauhala mat, also a table on which are the latest papers, books, magazines and a work basket, and here you may see Miss Mary and Miss Carrie Parker—though Miss Mary, as a trustee of Lunalilo Home may be away looking after her beloved makuas. Waikikiward of the Parkers, lives Mrs. Hattie Parker Green and her family in a large two-story frame house built by Mrs. May Green Wilcox.

Rice (W. H.). The ninety-fourth anniversary of Mother Rice's birth was celebrated at the home of Mrs. Hans Isenberg, on October 11, 1911. The day found Mother Rice enjoying good health and taking a lively interest in Kauai, her relatives, and her dearly loved native people. These came early in the morning, sang her favorite hymns and greeted her with many Alohas, and then the relatives and friends came in the afternoon with flowers and gifts and good wishes. At an early hour she retired, expressing great pleasure in the happy day she had spent.

But Mrs. Mary Rice writes in March, that at Christmastide the dear Mother Rice's health seemed to fail, and all plans for Christmas seemed uncertain. But notwithstanding a number of sinking spells she rallied, though each time a little weaker. Were we able to question her, we are sure she would send loving messages to the Cousins, one and all. While outwardly her vision is dimmed, she seems to be holding sweet communion with her life-long Friend who has dealt so gently with her in sparing her suffering, and who will never leave nor forsake her. She is able to repeat very lovingly favorite hymns, such as 'Jesus, Lover of my Soul,' and at times to recognize friends. She is tenderly cared for at the home of her grand-daughter, Mrs. Dora Isenberg, and just now, her daughter, Mrs. Anna Rice Cooke, and grand-daughter, Alice Cooke are with her while Mrs. Isenberg is away on a short trip to Japan for a much needed rest and change.

William Hyde Rice is still helping on the pono among the Hawaiians. His wife, Mary W. Rice, although helped by the operation upon her eyes in San Francisco, has still to be very careful and is forbidden to do much writing. She finds it hard, sometimes, that she cannot keep up with her correspondence. On October 26, 1910, their youngest daughter, Emily, became the bride of Dr. L. L. Sexton. They have made their home in Hilo, Hawaii, and are happy in their home life amid pleasant surroundings. Mary Eleanor (Rice) Scott came from San Francisco with her three little girls to visit her parents, arriving in time to attend her sister's wedding. At the beginning of the year 1911, on January 7, came the fourth little daughter, Alice Elizabeth, into the Scott family, thus completing a quartette of girls. A few days later, on January 26, into William Henry Rice's family arrived the first little daughter, Mary Dorothea Isenberg Rice. On July 18, 1910, a wireless was received from Maui that a son, Harold Frederick, had arrived at Maluhia, the home of Harold Rice. Mr. Harold and his family are now (in March) visiting the father and mother Rice of Kauai.

Anna Rice Wilcox, lovingly called "Daisy" is just now caring for her sister Mary's two little daughters, Eleanor and Leilani Scott. She has full charge of the Primary Department of the Hawaiian Sunday School, and finds the true secret of happiness in life is living for others.

Charles A. Rice is attending the Legislature of Honolulu, having been duly elected as one of the Representatives for the island of Kauai. Arthur Hyde Rice with his wife and baby girl are away taking a trip through California. Philip Rice is just now living at home while he is employed as Clerk of the Court under Judge Huddy.

Paul De La Vergne, in the summer of 1910, visited his relatives in Honolulu and Lihue, and returned greatly improved in health. Toward the close of 1910, a cable was received from Los Angeles, saying that the health of Mrs. Emily De La Vergne was in a critical condition. But the Lord was better than all their fears. She lives, is better, but is not able to take up the active duties of life. George Harrison De La Vergne of New York is the happy father of a fine boy, George Harrison De La Vergne Jr., born February 1, 1911.

Rogers (E. H.). Wm Harvey Rogers, whom we lost from Hilo two years ago, has reported from East Oakland, Cal. He retains his interest in Island affairs and would enjoy some of our Island warmth. In his enforced leisure he writes poetry as of old, and he sends us a short but thoughtful piece entitled "Electrons."

Miss Mabel Sunter, daughter of Mrs. Sarah Rogers Sunter is taking up special studies in Berkeley. Her brother, Arthur W. Sunter is living in California, while Miss Eva is successful and happy in her school at Hauula, Oahu.

Mr. Edmund Horton Rogers, son of Edmund Hitchcock and Malvina Rowell Rogers, is an engineer in an electric power company in Concord, N. H. His sister Kaʻe is living at Sutton, N. H. The half-sisters, Lizzie and Zelie Rogers, live on Maui. Lizzie is married and Zelie is a very successful teacher. Both, we hear, are members of the Wailuku Union church and helpers of their minister, R. B. Dodge.

Rowell (G. B.). A full and concise letter from Mrs. Clara Rowell Dole, besides telling of her own immediate family, gives the following facts. "My sister, Mrs. Stolz, has her daughter with her at home. She, Rosalie, teaches the girls gymnastic work in the Redlands High School. Herbert Stolz is at Oxford, England, where he won one of the Rhodes scholarships. He is preparing to study medicine. Mr. and Mrs. Lambert are with Dr. Stolz in Redlands during the winter, but from May or June till October, they have for several years been at Lake Tahoe.

"Of my brother George's five daughters, the eldest, Elsie, is keeping the house at 158 Lefferts Place, Brooklyn, but has no outside duties except great interest in Sunday School and Church work. The second, Alice Marion, is at 1827 Centre Ave, Chicago, taking a course in kindergarten, and lives at a mission where she teaches classes among Bohemians and Jews as part of her kindergarten course. The third, Dorothy Chase, has just returned from a year or two in Europe, and is at home at present, 158 Leffert's Place, Brooklyn. The two younger girls are at College, Olive Bateman at Vassar and Ruth Leslie at Mt. Holyoke, each in her first year. Alice and Dorothy each graduated from Mt. Holyoke and Elsie from Adelphi College, Brooklyn. Alice spent most of her last summer's vacation with us, here in California, and we are expecting to see the eldest and two younger girls next summer here also."

Marion E. (Rowell) Gay lives in Coronado, Cal. Their daughter Ethel is with them and Jeanie is in school in Santa Barbara. Harold Sinclair Gay was married in 1907 to Miss Arabel Owen. Harold is with a mining company in Mexico. They lost one little son in Mexico, and have one, Thomas Robinson Gay, living. Leslie Gay was married June 15, 1910, to Miss Margaret Gay, (no relation), and they are living at Craftonville, on a ranch of orange and other fruit bearing trees. Mrs. Dole inquires for old friends whose names she misses from the Cousins Report.

Wm. H. Rowell is in Honolulu, interested in new fruits and old friends.

Ruggles (S.). The following items are culled from a long letter received from Mrs. Frances S. Loomis, a grand-daughter of the missionary Ruggles and grand-mother of the triplet boys in whom our dear "Aunt Mattie" Chamberlain was so interested. Mr. Loomis is still preaching at the age of 75 and does not look, act or feel more than 60 years. Mrs. Loomis had accompanied him to Yale University to attend the 50th Anniversary of his graduation and the reunion of his class. She thought the members of his class appeared very up-to-date indeed in spite of the 50 years. Very few of the twenty-seven present seemed at all feeble, and certainly did not make night hideous with their yells as did many of the younger graduates. They went to New Haven by way of Washington, D. C., Mt. Vernon and Baltimore, especially visiting Johns Hopkins University where their son is studying; to Orange, N. J., to visit relatives; to Hartford, Conn., to see the only living niece of Grandmother Ruggles. Mrs. Phelps, over 80 years of age; to Amherst, and then to New Haven for commencement week, and returned by way of Rochester and Niagara Falls. Mrs. Loomis says: "Our youngest son, Edward, graduated at Beloit College, Wis., was given a fellowship in Syracuse University, where he took his western degree, and is in his second year in Johns Hopkins where he has been doing original research work in chemistry, and will receive his Ph. D., in June. He is engaged to teach in Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine, next year. We think he has done well for a boy only 23 years old yesterday. Edward is a member of the Associated Congregation Church in Baltimore."

"Last year our son-in-law, J. W. Christison, bought a ten acre fruit and poultry farm in the edge of Ripon, Wis., thinking the little home in Madison too cramped a place for three growing boys as lively as the triplets are. The children are delighted. Dole insists he is going to be a farmer and have a truly big farm when he is a man. Donald thinks he wants to go to college as Uncle Edward does, and Dean is such a happy-go-lucky youngster that he has no time for plans for the future. The most important events in our family the past year have been the advent of two new grand-children; a daughter, Elizabeth Helen, born to my daughter Louise Christison, in Madison, Wis., the 18th of May, 1910, and a son, Clayton Lyman, born to my daughter Florence Haswell, also in Madison, on July 3, 1910. The Christison triplets are delighted with the baby sister."

Smith (L.). The degree of L. L. D., was conferred upon Gov. W. F. Frear on June 22, 1910, by Yale University, "On account of his valuable constructive work as Governor of the Territory, his work on the commission that framed the Organic Act, his revision of the Hawaiian code, and his services as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court."

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dillingham enjoyed their European trip very much, and Mrs. Dillingham's description of the Oberamergau interested large audiences at the Woman's Board of Missions, and at the Kaumakapili Church. The Dillingham homestead is now occupied by Mr. Walter Dillingham, and his parents are living in the cottage in the yard. Mrs. Walter Dillingham is she who made such a success of the Kirmess given at the old fishmarket for the benefit of Palama Settlement. Mr. Harold Dillingham's home is on College Hills. Mr. and Mrs. Erdman have moved to Honolulu where they enjoy such luxuries as the telephone for the first time since their marriage. Mr. Erdman is now a professor of Biblical study at the Mid-Pacific Institute.

Mrs. Augustus Lowell Smith, whose beautiful and cultured voice has given pleasure to the New York friends, has returned again to Boston. She has loaned to "The Cousins," through her sister, Mrs. Dillingham, some rare old china, used by her grandmother, Mrs. Asa Thurston, in the early days of the mission.

Smith (J. W.). W. O. Smith, with his wife, visited Europe last summer, stopping for a time with their son Clarence in sunny Italy, and leaving him and his wife in their own home, a chateau in Normandy, overlooking the English Channel. A new grand-daughter, Helen Gray Baldwin, daughter of Katherine Smith and Samuel A. Baldwin, has been welcomed this year. Ethel Smith Baldwin and her husband have been to the coast but are now back at their home at Hamakuapoko, Maui. Lorrin Smith is also at Hamakuapoko. Raymond Smith, son of Alfred H. Smith, was married September 11th, 1909, to Miss Mae Paris, daughter of John Paris of Kealakekua, Hawaii.

Mr. Farley is still at Koloa, and Miss Emma Smith at Pasadena, Cal. Mr. Wm. Waterhouse's family has removed to Ventura, Cal., and his son Dr. Herbert Waterhouse is located at Koloa, Kauai.

Our Chief Justice, A. S. Hartwell, of the Territorial Supreme Court, has resigned his high office and retired to private life. But he can not lay aside the confidence, respect and love of his friends; and the Cousins, looking through his distinguished record as soldier and jurist, trace the true man, whose great love for humanity and adherence to the right, have kept his name untarnished through the years. He and Miss Hartwell have just sailed for the mainland.

C. A. Hartwell and wife are living in Boston, Mass. Mrs. Mabel Hartwell and family are at Chestnut Hill, Mass., while Mrs. A. W. Carter and Mrs. A. F. Judd with their families, and the Misses Bernice and Dorothy Hartwell are at present living in Honolulu.

Stewart (C. S.). A note from Capt. Cecil Stewart, written in San Francisco, has just arrived, informing us that his father, Col. Charles S. Stewart, died in the year 1904.

Thurston (A.). Lorrin A. Thurston has spent much time in Hilo this year, forwarding the new Hamakua R. R., and Mrs. Thurston has alternated between Hilo and Honolulu. Robert Shipman Thurston spent the summer at home, but has returned to Baton Rouge to finish his course.

Mr. and Mrs. Kluegel are in Hilo, and Harry Kluegel is also there as assistant engineer on the Hamakua extension of the Hilo R. R. May Kluegel is in Germany with her friend Ethel Damon, and expects to remain abroad another year; and George Kluegel, with his wife and daughter, Pauline, resides in Honolulu. Miss Jane Winne returned from her musical studies in Berkeley and has charge of chorus singing in Mid-Pacific Institute. Miss Mary Winne is an efficient and valued teacher at Punahou and James Winne is in Alexander and Baldwin's.

Henry Taylor passed away on Aug. 21, 1910, and Mrs. Alice Thurston Stevenson died Nov. 4, 1910, in Taylorsville, N. C. Her son, Asa Thurston, graduated in medicine in 1909. Since then he has spent a year in the Emergency Hospital in Washington, D. C. and had been four months in the Children's Hospital when he was called to his mother's bedside. His sister Lucy is a teacher, but spent the last year at home with her mother. They will both remain with Mr. Stevenson during his lifetime. Asa is practicing medicine in Taylorsville. His sister writes of him, "Asa is a handsome fellow, over six feet in height, and the people here think he is like his father, especially in speech and movements. He is doing well, and will no doubt make a success in his profession."

.Tinker (R.). Mrs. Leon Harvey (Mary Tinker) has kindly supplied us with facts about the Tinker family who had drifted from us with the passing years. She says: "Just a word about each of the children of Reuben and Mary Tinker."

1. Samuel H. Tinker, born in Honolulu, died in 1883, aged 52 years, unmarried.

2. Joseph E. Tinker, a minister for forty years in different parishes, now honorably retired, is making his home with one of his sons in Clayton, Mass. His wife died ten years ago. Though 87 years old, he retains a good measure of physical vigor, and for a few months past has been supplying acceptably the pulpit of a country congregation in Ellsworth Conn. He has two sons, Robert E. and

Joseph B., both married. The home of the former is in Lockport, N. Y., but he goes daily into Buffalo to his business. The second son, Joseph, lives in Clayton, Berkshire Co., Mass.

3. Sarah Tinker Gray, for many years a widow, finds a pleasant home in her declining years with a daughter, Mrs. Weatherup, in Jamestown, N. Y. Her second daughter, Mrs. Elmer Star, lives in Buffalo, N. Y.

4. Robert H. Tinker's address has remained unchanged through many years. He went to Rockford, Ill., in 1856, and has been identified with many of the city's public interests and was mayor in 1875 or 1876. His home, shared by his wife and adopted son, is one of the most beautiful and picturesque spots in Rockford. The house, being built on a cliff overlooking a stream, lent itself so naturally to swiss architecture, that it is built in that style.

5. Dr. and Mrs. Harvey (Mary Tinker) are finding New Rochelle a pleasant place of residence, forty minutes from Broadway and easy of access.

6. Abbie Marina Tinker Purden died in 1907 in Titusville, Pa. Only one member of her family remains—Miss Marina L. Purdon, 153 East 18th St., New York City.

7. Charlotte Elizabeth Tinker, afterwards Mrs. George Moody of Titusville, Pa., died in March, 1871. Their only child, Philip, two and a half years old, died a week later. Dr. Moody is also dead."

Mrs. Harvey also sends a photograph of her brother Joseph and a thin volume of his poems entitled "Mosses." The breath of the woodland is in them, the fragrance of hidden arbutus and the memory of youth and springtime, and one gem, "My Philosophy," points to the source of content and trust.

MY PHILOSOPHY.

by

Joseph Emerson Tinker.

I have no title deeds to lands,
No business that my care demands,
No bank account, no money jar,
No ships now coming in from far,
No oil stock soaring to the sky,
No rich relation soon to die;
With resource so diminutive
'Tis hard to say just how I live,
Yet have I riches in good health
That I would not exchange for wealth,
And I have grace to be content
With what I have, for when I lent
To God, by giving to the poor,
And hung my latchstring out the door,
I took his note of promise true,
That somehow he would see me through.
And every day is wealth of air,
And wealth of pictured landscape fair,
The wealth of sun no gold could buy,
The wealth of stars in midnight sky.
The lake with all its charm is mine;
And yonder long horizon line
Is but the boundary of lands
I own, though tilled by other hands.
The earth is mine, the clouds are mine,
And all the glorious sunsets fine;
And from this store my Lord doth give,
I've learned that one may grandly live.

Van Duzee (W. S.). Miss Grace Van Duzee of Lancaster, N. Y., sends greetings. She has recently been greatly shocked by having her ideal Hawaiian Islands, "where every prospect pleases," cruelly defamed by a lecturer, a Mr. Cummings, returned tourist, who pictured the dark side only, and represented nature as well as man as "vile." Miss Van Duzee sends a letter written by her older sister Mary, born in Honolulu, and for thirty years a missionary in Persia, in which she tells of the interesting and encouraging work among Moslems, Armenians and Jews. For political reasons, however, we are asked to keep these out of print. Her sister Cyrene, who also spent about thirty years as missionary in Turkey and Persia, is living in Gouverneur, N. Y., and is by no means idle.

Wetmore (C. H.). Dr. Frances Wetmore and Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Lewis (Lucy Wetmore) of Oakland, Cal., are on an around the world excursion, sailing westward across the Pacific, going first to Japan.

Whitney (S.). Miss Jane K. Pogue of Santa Clara, Cal., writes: "The Whitneys are almost gone. Of course you have Harry and Mrs. Goodale with you on the Islands. Then my aunt, Mrs. Emily (Whitney) McCall has one daughter living, all that is left of that family. She lives in the old home in Saybrook, Conn. I hear from her often—a lovely woman. Then of our family—Mrs. Maria (Whitney) Pogue's family, my brother William of Maui and I are the only children left. He has had a large family, 14 children. Three are not living, his oldest, Edmund, and two little ones, a boy and a girl who died at three months. Willie, the oldest living, is married and lives in Arcata, Humboldt Co., Cal. John is a carpenter, at present here with me, and this is his home. Harvey is studying music—the violin in Berkeley. Coville is in San Diego, learning the dairy business. Maria is here with me. She has just taken a three years course on the piano, graduated last Christmas, has a few pupils, and plays the organ for the Presbyterian church in this town. Charles is at Punahou, in the first year of the High School. Ruth is here with me and in the Eighth grade in school. Henry is at Punahou Preparatory. Fred, Jennie and Frances are on Maui with their parents though they expect to leave in May for California.

I enjoy very good health. The country is most beautiful now. The trees are in full bloom, and no matter which way you turn it is nothing but bloom. I often think of the dear Island people but do not see many of them."

Mrs. Goodale with her husband and two children are living in their new home on Wyllie St. Miss Catherine graduated last year at Bryn Mawr and Holbrook is attending a private school in Honolulu.

Mrs. Ranny Scott, daughter of Mrs. Helen (Whitney) Kelley, lives in Honolulu. She says that her great-grandmother Mercy Whitney's journal of the Thaddens trip is still in existence and in the possession of her aunt, Miss Caroline E. McCall. We wish we could have at least a copy of it for the Society some time. Mrs. Scott's sisters, Clare and Gladys Kelley, are living with their uncle Harry Whitney, on Piikoi St.

Wilcox (A.). Two grandchildren have blessed the family of S. W. Wilcox during this year. Edith Emma Sloggett came to Paia on December 2nd, 1910, and Albert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Wilcox arrived February 12, 1911. Miss Elsie Wilcox is in Berlin, and Miss Mabel will graduate next June from Johns Hopkins Hospital and return to the Islands.

Mr. George Wilcox and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wilcox continue to give of their dollars and acres for the advancement of broader education.

Adams, J. Q. From the Theological Seminary at Auburn, N. Y., Mr. Adams wrote more than a year ago, "We still look back to our visit to the Islands, now 21 years ago, as one of the pleasantest experiences of our lives. I suppose there are few left who remember us, and we, were we to return, would miss some who have passed on, chief among whom would be our cousin Mary Green. We have never known another just like her in her utter unselfishness and complete devotion to Him whom she served. I am here in dear old Auburn's Faculty, I hope till my work is done.

Allen, Mrs. W. F. Our childhood's favorite fairy-tale of "Sleeping Beauty" in the wood, is not half so wonderful as the true story of an Angel shut into a frail human form, radiating comfort, sympathy, help and joy into the dark corners of life's forest, while waiting for her "Prince of Peace" to come and wake her to the glories of her future bliss.

Bates, Dudley C. Says: "I am glad to get the Annual Reports. Looking them over brings back memories of the happy days of long ago. There are very few who will remember me. If, however, you see any of my time, give my best wishes to them.

Beckwith—Prof. Maurice Beckwith has returned from his European sojourn, and is visiting relatives in Great Barrington, Mass. His mother, Mrs. M. B. Beckwith, has sent to the society a large photograph of the Royal School, which has been framed according to her wishes, and is awaiting wall space in the renovated Chamberlain house. Miss Mary Beckwith is caring for her mother, Mrs. Geo. Beckwith, and her home in Mount Clair, N. J., while her sister Martha teaches at Vassar College.

Bowen. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Bowen and Mr. Spencer Bowen returned from Europe in November. They were in the company of Dr. and Mrs. Scudder and had a splendid trip, meeting on the way from Boston back to New York twenty-one Island people. Mr. Spencer Bowen is giving his time and talents to Palama Settlement work, and his father is devoting himself to Central Union Bible School as its superintendent, and putting his rare business ability into its upbuild. He also is at Palama, taking the place of Mr. Rath during the absence of the latter.

Carpenter. Miss Helen E. Carpenter writes that her love for Hawaii and its interests is as great as ever. Last summer she had a visit from Miss S. E. Potter, a former Maunaolu teacher and a Cousin, and from Miss Mary Beckwith. We are indebted to Miss Carpenter for the interesting letters from Fanny Andrews Shepard. Miss Carpenter's badge of "Companion in the Royal Order of Kapiolani" which she has donated to the Society is a source of great interest to tourists.

Flaxman. Miss Margaret Flaxman sends greeting from Grange-over-Sands, her home in England.

Gilman. Our dear Mrs. Sarah Gilman, sister of the late J. B. Atherton, was released from her weary body and left us in August. Her daughter, Dr. Carrie Gilman, has built a lovely bungalow, and lives in Kaimuki, her office hours, of course, being spent in town. Mr. Joseph Gilman's family still reside at Waikiki.

Hopper. Miss Margaret Hopper, with her sister, Mrs. Peterson and niece Dorothy, have just started on a European trip of some months. Since the dear Mother left, Miss Margaret has made her home with her sisters.

Higgins. Mrs. McCully-Higgins has made a short visit in Honolulu. Her daughter, Mrs. Alice McCully Smith, is now at Hotel Monroe, San Francisco.

Howard. Loving messages have been received from Mrs. Hester Dickson Howard.

Kincaid. The Cousins grieve with Mrs. Kincaid, in the unexpected departure of our former loved pastor, Dr. Kincaid.

Kittredge. Mrs. Rose Cronise writes that her sister Mary has returned from Berlin and is living at New Haven, where her husband, Dr. C. A. Peters, is taking a post-graduate course, and is also substituting for an absent professor.

Lowrey. Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Lowrey on March 28, gave a brilliant reception to their new daughter, the bride of Fred. D. Lowrey. Sherwood M. Lowrey is in Honolulu and Allen J. Lowrey is at Harvard.

Morris. Miss Morris, so long lost to the Society, has been traced to Mrs. Minnie M. Baldwin, 129, 13th St., Portland, Or.

Norton. Miss Norton, former Principal of Kawaiahao Seminary, writes from Howell, Mich. "How delightful to think the Chamberlain House has been secured for a permanent home for the Mission Children's Society, and of the relics that may be gathered there. Miss Chamberlain often spoke to me of her desire that such should be the disposal of it." Miss Norton wishes to know what is now on the land where the Kawaiahao Seminary used to be, and wishes a tablet could be placed somewhere telling how the grounds were formerly used.

Paulding. Miss Christine W. Paulding, another Principal of Kawaiahao Seminary, is at Kamiah, Idaho. She is there by Government appointment, as Field Matron to the Nez. Perce Indians. Her love for and interest in Hawaii nei remains unchanged.

Scudder. Dr. Doremus Scudder, since his return from Europe, has given a series of travalogues which have been well attended and have proved intensely interesting.

Simpson. Miss Elizabeth Simpson, while on her way to Florida, writes: "Margaret, Dora and I send Aloha to those of the Cousins who yet remember us. We read with interest the Reports that come to us and are glad to recall the faces of those with whom we were associated and whom we loved. Margaret continues to enjoy her work as agent of Associated Charities in Washington. It is engrossing work and makes a demand upon the sympathies, the tact, and the abilities of the worker, but the real good that may be accomplished for the poor and the sorrowing, is something worth while.

After an absence from home of about eight years, Dora returned to us last July. She looks well, and seems to have been very happy in her work as a medical missionary in India. She laughs quite as much as of old, and does not seem to be suffering from overwork, though the fact that she often saw and prescribed for more than one-hundred patients in a day led us to fancy that she would seem broken down. She expects to return to Jhelum Hospital next September, though she may wait for the return of her brother, who is also a missionary in India at Kahlapur, many miles from Dora. At present Dora is visiting May Wallace in Chicago. She has been taking post-graduate medical work in Chicago.

Miss Simpson encloses a letter from Miss Lillian Cathcart who is spending a year in a home for negro orphan girls at Atlanta, Ga. There are about sixty girls, some from good parentage, but most are destitute, and the home depends upon gifts of friends for food, clothing, soap, etc., and there is no money for salaries.

Waterhouse. Mrs. Waterhouse and daughter are expected home from England. Miss Pinder, if sufficiently recovered from her recent illness, will return also. Mrs. Elsie Waterhouse Stubbs, of London, has a little boy, Geoffrey Stubbs. Dr. Ernest Waterhouse has returned from abroad to the joy of his former patients and friends. Mr. F. T. P. Waterhouse is still away looking after rubber interests, but his family have returned. Mr. and Mrs. George Waterhouse with little Shadford, have spent the year at the Peninsula; while Mr. and Mrs. John Waterhouse have just sailed for a trip through Europe.

IN MEMORIAM.

Lorrin A. Andrews died on February 27, 1911, at Hilo. Born of missionary parents and brought up on Maui, his character was as strong and rugged as the mountains of his native island. Every gulch and peak of that picturesque land was familiar to him, and as he stood on the summit of Haleakala, gazing through the clouds upon the plains below, he looked like a god of the hills surveying his own, yet humbly and reverently he bared his head to his acknowledged Lord. Never thinking of self he was quick to act for others; swinging over an awful precipice to save the life of a friend, reaching a helping hand to the poor foreigner, speaking a word of cheer to the discouraged, boldly standing up for those wrongly accused, and always a friend of the natives whose language was as his own. From mastering through kindness the wild horses and cattle of Maui he learned to master men, and as Chief of Police and Sheriff of Hawaii, he was feared by wrong-doers, trusted by the oppressed, and admired by all who knew him well. To the wife who so lovingly cared for him in his sickness, our sympathy goes out, and to the daughter he cherished so tenderly.

The death of Edward H. Bailey occurred at Wailuku, Maui, on November 5, 1910. His sickness was short and his mind was clear, and he was able to bid good-bye to family and friends. Mr. Bailey was born February 22, 1837, at Kohala, but spent his boyhood at Wailuku. For a time he lived in California, but returned to Wailuku where he was engaged in agriculture, dairying and the manufacture of poi and taro flour. For many years he was a trustee of the Union Church of Wailuku, and in 1880 he became a member of that church. He was a trustee of Maunaolu Seminary, and a quiet helper in all enterprises for the good of the island and of its people. In business and philanthropic circles he will be greatly missed, for he was identified with Maui life, and was a part of Maui history.

Rev. James P. Chamberlain died at Mount Vernon, Oregon,

March 9, 1911. He was the son of Father Chamberlain who arrived in Honolulu in 1823, and he was born in the old coral Chamberlain House back of Kawaiahao church on June 9, 1835. He attended school at Punahou, and when 19 years of age left Hawaii to enter Williams College. He never returned to the Islands, but soon after graduation entered the ministry. He preached in California, from which state he enlisted as a private in the Union Army at the time of the Civil War. After his return he went to Wisconsin and preached there till about sixteen years ago when he moved to Oregon. His wife and his son John were with him when he passed away, and his only daughter, Mrs. Worth O. Aiken, lives on Maui. His two brothers, Warren and Levi, and his sister, Miss Martha Chamberlain, survive him in Honolulu.

Samuel Newell Emerson died August 12, 1910. He was the eldest son of Father and Mother Emerson; born October 10th, 1832 and brought up at Waialua, Oahu; attended school at Punahou and finished his education in the East. After his return in 1855, he was a surveyor on Oahu, using a compass such as George Washington carried, for this was before the days of the transit instrument. For many years, also he owned and carried on a dairy ranch on the lands now covered by the Waialua plantation. His loss of hearing was a handicap for many years, and the silence of the world and the loneliness of life turned his thoughts inward and made him peculiar at times. He enjoyed books, was faithful at church service, helpful to those about him, and was accustomed, even in the later years of his feebleness, to gather the children of the street into his rooms for a Sunday School service. To one who for so long walked in silence, what must it be to hear the angels' song, the "Welcome" and the "Come, ye blessed of the Father." Mr. Emerson was one of the first members of this Society.

Robert Mills Fuller died July 5, 1910. He had been a member of this Society since 1872. His father, Joseph Fuller, was teacher at the Royal School, and his mother was Mary Ann Mills Fuller, a sister of Mother Damon. His brother Edward and sister Ellen reside in California. Mr. Fuller was born in Koloa, November 18, 1851, and attended Punahou from 1866 to 1869. For a time he pursued his education in the United States, and returning was for many years a trusted employe of the firm of Allen and Robinson. He had a faithful wife and a very interesting family of children. The long years of pain of suffering and helplessness, were hard for such a man to endure, and like a refining fire.

“I think man’s great capacity for pain
Proves his immortal birthright. I am sure
No merely human mind could bear the strain
Of some tremendous sorrows we endure.”

Mrs. Sarah Atherton Gilman passed away September 26, 1910. For thirty years or more she faithfully performed her duties among us in the home, the church, the mission circle and the sick room; but one by one these deeds of love were given up and others ministered lovingly to her needs. Surely this is the hardest part of the voyage of life; to lie drifting in a calm, after the storms are over, the Homeland in sight, and the blessed ones waiting with their welcome; or to be quarantine at the very entrance of the harbor! Thus she tossed for months, but on September 26th, she landed on the heavenly shore; and as we sat by the casket on the spacious lanai at Waikiki, with our backs to the sea, and listened to the waves lapping drowsily behind us, and felt the scented breezes as they stole softly over the flower banked tables, we could but rejoice that the voyage was over and home had been reached.

Mrs. Alice Walbridge Gulick entered into rest January 4, 1911. She was born in Ithaca, N. Y., enjoyed the best advantages in education, became a skilled teacher in Chicago, married Rev. Thomas L. Gulick in 1872, went with her husband as a missionary to Spain where they remained ten years, served in Cuba, in New Mexico and lived on Maui for some years as wife of the pastor of the foreign church; went in 1893 to Philadelphia where they remained three years, and then was matron at the Home for Convalescents and Home for Incurables in Devon, where her husband was chaplain. Here she remained for twelve years, four years after Mr. Gulick's death. Then after months of severe illness she came to Honolulu, and in the restful home of Rev. O. H. Gulick, a miracle seemed to be wrought, and she walked and rode, went to church and called upon friends and seemed almost well. But her work was done; her sweet singing and rare conversational powers, her executive ability and tact were needed no more here, but her wonderful self-control and sweetness of temper made the time of weakness and weariness a blessing to those about her, and she sank to sleep in the arms of her Father.

William Wisner Hall, who died May 24, 1910, was one of the foundation stones of this Society. Born June 1st, 1841, in the Old Mission Home, his early recollections were centred here, and no one rejoiced more than he did, over the lease of this property to the Cousins and the later gift of the Chamberlain House. He became a charter member of the Society at the age of eleven, and as a member of the "veranda brigade" he attended all its meetings and became interested in its charities. He was a member of the editorial board of the Maile Wreath again and again, and many illustrated covers have been done by his artistic hand; and his clear ringing tenor was in demand in all the music, in glees and sacred song. He was one also, who welcomed the stranger missinoraies on their way to Micronesia and kept in touch with them by letter, by remittance and by store. He had personal acquaintance with most of the members and always expressed interest in them. At the last adjourned Meeting, on April 30, 1910, held at Gov. Frear's, Mr. Hall was acting president. It will be a long time before the members cease to look around for his familiar face or to listen for the voice now joining in the harmonies of heaven.

Rufus Anderson Lyman died July 5, 1910. Mr. Lyman's name also appears in that first Cousins Report in 1853, and though living in Hilo, and unable to attend many meetings, he loved the Society and made eleven children members of it. Mr. Lyman was born June 23rd, 1842, at Hilo. Having a good foundation for an education laid at the home of his parents he attended school at Punahou from 1856 to 1862. In 1866 he married Miss Rebecca Brickwood, whose life was full of good works, and who died in 1906. A noble family of children rise up to call them blessed. Ten or eleven of these attended Punahou, and three have gone to West Point. Mr. Lyman was the adviser and right hand man of Ruth Keelikolani, the governess of Hawaii during the monarchy, and was respected, trusted and loved by the natives as well as by his own countrymen. He was faithful at religious services, able in prayer, helpful to his country and true to his God.

Mrs. Alice Gasking Thurston Stevenson died in Taylorsville, N. C., November 4, 1910. For a number of years, as the wife of the pastor of Taylorsville, Rev. Thomas G. Thurston, she won the hearts of the people. Through sad and lonely days of widowhood she was cheered and sustained by a strong faith and unwavering trust, and then came years when she and her children were tenderly cared for by Mr. Stevenson, her second husband. But just as her children were leaving school and earthly joys seemed complete, when life's garden seemed filled with roses and her hands were extended to take the blossoms and the joys of life, she was called to "sing in the height of Zion" where "their soul shall be as a watered garden and they shall not sorrow any more at all."

Col. Charles Seaforth Stewart died in 1904. From our meager records we find that he was the last survivor of the three children of the Mission family Stewart, who arrived in 1823. His sister Harriet Bradford died in 1843, and Martha Wilson Stewart on July 12, 1860. Charles and Harriet became members of this Society in 1854. Charles received a military training at West Point and eventually become Colonel of Engineers, serving in the West with headquarters at San Francisco. He made his family, consisting of his wife, two sons and a daughter, members in 1876. His daughter Cora died in February of that year, and Mrs. Stewart ten years later. About this time in 1886, Col. Stewart having been forty years in active service was retired, and he then removed to the old home in Cooperstown, N. Y., and here his son, Charles Seymour Stewart, died in 1893. One son, Capt. Cecil Stewart, survives him.

Henry Thurston Taylor died August 21, 1910. He was the son of Rev. T. E. Taylor and Persis Thurston Taylor, and was born at Kailua, May 20, 1856. When quite small he went with his parents to California, where his father was a home missionary. He was educated in that state, returning to the Islands as a civil engineer some time in the 80's. His was a life of struggle beneath a quiet exterior, but as the Lord said to Simon "I have prayed for thee that thy faith fail not," so we believe the great desire to conquer, and to strengthen the brethren, ended in victory. When the end came his brother and a sister were at his side, and the impressive funeral service was held at the home of his sister Mrs. Winne. The exquisite flowers arranged by Mrs. James Taylor, the soft strains of music, "Thy Well Be Done," sung by Mr. Stanley Livingston to an accompaniment by Miss Jane Winne, his mother's paintings on the wall behind the casket, the sympathetic words and tones of the minister, Mr. Ebersole, and most of all the many inspiring passages from the Bible, such as "I know that my Redeemer liveth," tended to take away the sadness of death and bring heaven nearer.

Others there are so near to Cousinhood and so closely in touch with us that it is fitting that their departure should be chronicled here.

Mrs. Ellen Lewers Hopper, mother of our Margaret Hopper, left us August 5, 1910. Side by side she walked with us and worked with us for so many years till we feel that another Cousin has gone. And her going was so beautiful. She carefully prepared for her usual short journey to the coast; and her son, her three daughters and her brother accompanied her thus far on her way, and then death's chariot met her, and there came the parting of the ways, and the children could not follow her to her glorious reception among the angels.

Mrs. Ann Lydgate, mother of our Cousin Rev. John Lydgate and Mrs. Frank Cooke, died December 13, 1910. After years of pioneer life on Maui and Hawaii she came to Honolulu, and her tall figure, strong, true face and quiet ways won to her many friends. She too had her children and her children's children about her when the end came, and her brave sweet character is mirrored in her descendants.

Rev. William Morris Kincaid, D. D., pastor of Central Union Church from 1898 to 1906, died at Charlotte, N. C., on January 2, 1911. Dr. Kincaid, who for eight years ministered to our spiritual needs, who always greeted us with extended hand and smiling face, who so kindly, tenderly and sympathetically comforted us in sorrow, and gently laid to rest the dear bodies of our loved ones, has himself gone to meet them in the world of light. Our sympathies are with our Cousin Mrs. Kincaid and their three children.

Dr. Walter A. Brinckerhoff, whose young wife, our Cousin, so recently passed away, died in Boston, March 2nd, 1911, Captain Andrew Fuller, father of Cousin Belle Jones, died August 20, 1910. J. H. King, husband of Lucy Conde King, died in October, and in February, 1909, little Owen Sinclair Gay, grandson of Marion Rowell Gay, left his parents in Mexico at the call of Him who said, "Let the little ones come unto Me."

With the exception of little Owen Gay, who died in 1909, no children are found in this list of deceased, no young people, and but two in the vigor of manhood. Eight or more had passed the milestone of "three score years and ten." Their work was done, the shadows were falling and Death was but the night that ushered in the day.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. W. ANDREWS,
Secretary.

According to a rule adopted by the Society at its Annual Meeting, the records closed March 31. Since that date there have occurred the following deaths. These will be further noticed in next year's Report.

In Honolulu, April 2nd, 1911, Miss Helen Seymour Judd.

In Oakland, April 11th, 1911, Rev. James McKinney Alexander.

In Honolulu, April 12th, 1911, Mrs. Sophia Hale Boyd Pratt.

In Honolulu, April 27th, 1911, Mrs. Cornelia Hall Jones.

A recent resolution of the Board of Managers makes the Society year end March 31, 1911. This prevents some receipts that have come in between April 1st and the annual meeting from appearing in this report.

LYLE A. DICKEY,
Treasurer.

AUDITOR'S CERTIFICATE

Your Treasurer turned over to me the Cash Book which represents the financial record of the affairs of the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society.

GENERAL ACCOUNT. This is found for the year beginning April 17, 1910, to April 4, 1911, on pages 110 to 114, inclusive, of the Cash Book.

I have checked all footings, debit and credit. All moneys paid out are found to be covered by cancelled checks or vouchers,—in some cases both cancelled check and receipt are on file. This account shows a credit balance of $305.94 on hand.

The money is accounted for by a credit balance of $307.94 in the Society's bank book of the Bank of Hawaii. The $2.00 over and above the amount called for by the Society's Cash Book is explained by the Treasurer as being money collected since April 4th, but not properly belonging to the business of the past year.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP FUND. The record of this fund for the past year is found in the Cash Book on pages 71 and 72. The records show $473.68 on hand May 3, 1910. Collections covering life memberships made during the year amount to $263.73.

Footings were checked and found correct.

This fund of $737.41 is accounted for by the Society's Bank of Hawaii Savings Book, which shows the above amount to the credit.

MISSIONARY FUND. This fund is in the hands of W. R. Castle, Trustee. I understand that my duties as Auditor are limited to the checking of accounts of your Treasurer, so I have not examined the securities or the accounts of the Trustee for this fund.

The Treasurer, however, submits a statement by Castle & Withington showing $90.35 to the credit of the fund uninvested; he also reports that during the year he has drawn on this fund $165. The receipts and disbursements of this fund are shown in the Cash Book on page 67. Vouchers for the expenditure of this money have been checked. Authority for making these payments was given the Treasurer at the last annual meeting, through resolutions passed.

The records show a credit to this account of $1.00, which was collected by your Treasurer and which should be turned over to W. R. Castle, Trustee.

The typewritten Treasurer's statement, which bears the date April 1st, 1911, has been compared with the accounts in the Society's Cash Book.

I have checked the footings and can certify that the statement is an accurate record of the accounts as shown in the Cash Book.

W. F. DILLINGHAM,
Auditor.

Honolulu, April 21st, 1911.

RECORDER'S REPORT

One hundred and forty-six family records have been placed in our Great Register, and these are distributed thus—

27 of the first generation, (early missionaries);

75 of the second generation;

44 of the third generation.

Besides these, 17 records of families have been written up to date on temporary sheets, and are ready to be re-written on the permanent sheets of the book.

A majority of these records are perfect, possessing all the details asked for. The gaps which occur are—dates of birth, dates and places of marriage, middle names, and others in less number; and a strong tendency is shown, in the returns made, to ignore those who passed from this life at an early age.

The leaves of our Record Book are 14 inches square, and the writing is done with large type. The average family record occupies half a page, and the remaining three-fourths of a sheet invite you, ye sons and daughters, to place there loving tributes to those you know best; and if this limited space does not suffice, other pages will be at your service. The family record is only a bare trellis, and you are permitted to train over it a flowering vine representing the family life. Do not fear that the trellises in bloom will all look alike. And do not tie to the method common with professional biographers, who will analyze their subject, and weigh what is censurable against what is commendable, until they arrive at a precise estimate of the person's value. From within the family circle we are privileged to tell only the best of what is true, and we bid all detractors, if such are found, to seek another place for expressing their opinions.

The Recorder would like to enlist an army of writers, to furnish short sketches of the missionary fathers and mothers and their descendants: he promises to copy these into his Big Book; and he pledges his reputation for good judgment that when the book reaches fulness it will be the most interesting book, save one, in Honolulu.

R. W. ANDREWS,
Recorder.

MEMORIAL TRUST FUND

MR. J. P. COOKE,

President of H. M. C. Society.

The published annual report for 1910 did not contain a detailed statement of the Memorial Trust Funds which could be followed by those Cousins who depend upon the report for their information. It did contain (page 57) portions of a report of G. R. Carter as President showing those who had contributed to the purchase of the Chamberlain home as well as the condition on Dec. 13, 1909, of all the various Funds of the Society, and (on page 60) just a statement of the Total Funds in the hands of the Trustees on March 31, 1910. Therefore to complete the records, your Trustees submit this year two statements, the Fourth and Fifth,—covering the period from April 1st, 1909, to April 1st, 1911.

Referring to the Annual Report of 1909 (page 88) the Trustees showed a total of funds on hand of $4,157.89, of which $272.09 was the cash balance of Revenue Account and $1,685.80 the balance of Reserve in the Bank of Hawaii Savings Department. The remainder, $2,200.00, was a $1,000.00 Paia Bond and $1,200.00 O. R. & L. Co. Bonds. The Fourth Statement, submitted herewith, shows the changes from that time to April 1st, 1910, when the Balances and Totals ($5,045.00) were as published (page 60) in 1910; and the Fifth Statement is for the past year, ending March 31, 1911, when the funds were as follows:

Summary March 31, 1911.

3 Hilo Ry. Bonds	$3,000.00
3 Mutual Telephone Bonds	300.00
Bank of Hawaii Savings Account	1,393.57

H. T. Co., account Principal	388.15
H. T. Co., account Revenue	146.06
	$5,227.78

Thus the results of two years show an increase of $1,069.89 after disbursing $547.89 in the care and upkeep of the property.

Hawaiian Mission Children's Society

CHARTER OF INCORPORATION.

To all to whom these presents shall come, I, Alexander J. Campbell, Treasurer of the Territory of Hawaii, send greeting:

Whereas Clarence Hyde Cooke, President, Albert Francis Judd, Vice-President, Maria Sheeley Andrews, Secretary, Robert Wilson Andrews, Recorder, and Lyle Alexander Dickey, Treasurer of an association known as The Hawaiian Mission Children's Society, have in behalf and by authority of the said association made application to me, as Treasurer of the Territory of Hawaii, to grant the said association a charter of incorporation under the corporate name of The Hawaiian Mission Children's Society for the purposes of perpetuating the memory of the missionary fathers and mothers who brought Christianity to these Islands, of promoting union among its members, of cultivating in them an active missionary spirit, stirring them up to good deeds and of assisting in the support of Christian work.

Now, therefore, know ye that I, the said Alexander J. Campbell, as such Treasurer as aforesaid, and by and with the consent of the Governor of the Territory and in the exercise and execution of every power and authority in any wise enabling me in this behalf, do hereby constitute the members of the said association a body corporate under the name of The Hawaiian Mission Children's Society for the term of fifty years for the purposes aforesaid with power by that name in their corporate capacity to sue and be sued, to adopt and use a seal and the same to alter at pleasure, to take, purchase, receive, hold, sell and convey such real and personal estate as the purposes of the corporation shall require, not exceeding in the whole sum the value of $100,000.00 and to mortgage the same to secure any debt of the corporation. Its location shall be in said Honolulu. It shall have power to make By-Laws for the management of its property, the election and removal of its officers and members and the regulation of its affairs, and such By-Laws from time to time to repeal, alter or amend, but the Constitution and the By-Laws heretofore adopted by the said association shall be the By-Laws of the said corporation until the same shall have been repealed, altered or amended with the exception of Articles 1, 2, and 10 of said constitution.

There shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary and a Treasurer of the corporation, upon any one of whom service of process may be made, whose names and residences and also the By-Laws of the corporation shall be filed in the Office of the Treasurer of the Territory.

No stock shall be issued nor dividends paid by the corporation.

The members of the said association and such other persons as shall from time to time be elected as members shall be members of the corporation and its officers shall be the same persons who are now the officers of the said association until otherwise provided by the corporation.

The property of the said corporation shall alone be liable for payment of its debts and liabilities.

In witness whereof I hereby set my hand and official seal this 10th day of August, A. D. 1907.

(Signed) A. J. CAMPBELL,
Treasurer Territory of Hawaii.

I hereby consent to the granting of the foregoing Charter this 14th day of August, A. D. 1907.

(Signed) G. R. CARTER,
Governor of Hawaii.

BY-LAWS.ARTICLE 1.

The officers of the corporation shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and a Recorder, all of whom, except the Recorder, shall be elected by ballot, to hold office for one year, or until their successors are elected or appointed.

ARTICLE 2.

At each annual meeting of the corporation, or as soon after as possible, the President shall appoint not less than three nor more than ten members, who, together with the officers mentioned in Article 1, shall constitute a Board of Managers, and who shall hold office until the next annual meeting, or until their successors are appointed.

ARTICLE 3.

Any descendant, or consort of a descendant of those who are or who have been members of the American Protestant Mission of these Islands, or are members of this corporation, may become a certified Life Member by paying ten dollars at one time, or one dollar as a first payment and one dollar or more annually thereafter until ten dollars has been paid.

ARTICLE 4.

All members of the American Protestant Mission are Honorary Members of this corporation. Any person may be admitted as an Honorary member by the consent of the Board of Managers, approved by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any meeting of the Society.

ARTICLE 5.

Any member may appeal from any action of the Board of Managers. If the appeal is seconded, such action may be reversed by a majority vote of the members present.

ARTICLE 6.

The corporation shall hold an annual meeting in April, in commemoration of the landing of the Missionaries in these Islands. Officers for the ensuing year shall be elected, reports of retiring officers read and appropriations made. Special meetings may also be held at the call of the President whenever any missionary or social interest shall in his opinion render such meeting desirable.

ARTICLE 7.

Each member may upon application receive a certificate of membership in the following form, to be signed by the President and countersigned by the Treasurer:

One generation passeth away and another generation cometh; but the earth abideth forever.—Eccl. i:4	Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity:—Ps. cxxxiii:1.	Charity suffereth long and is kind: is not easily provoked; thinketh no evil.—I. Cor. xiii:4-5.
	This May Certify that Having paid the sum of.....Dollars into the Treasury, is a.....Member of the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society.
	Honolulu,.....190.....
	(Signed)
	President.
	Treasurer.
	Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature.—Mark xvi:15.

ARTICLE 8.

The President shall preside over the meetings of the corporation, appoint the Recorder and all committees not otherwise provided for, sign all certificates of membership and arrange the program of exercises for each meeting. He may convene the corporation to special meetings at his discretion. He shall also be ex-officio President of the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE 9.

The Vice-President shall audit the Annual Report of the Treasurer, and perform all the duties of the President in case of his absence.

ARTICLE 10.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary, who may be a salaried officer, to keep a record of the proceedings of the corporation at its several meetings, make out an abstract of the proceedings of the corporation for its annual meeting, and be, ex-officio, Secretary of the Board of Managers. The Secretary shall carry out the correspondence of the corporation at home and abroad, take charge of the books and papers of the corporation, see to the publication of matters of interest, and report at the annual meeting.

ARTICLE 11.

The Treasurer shall receive and safely keep all moneys belonging to the Corporation, and pay out therefrom only upon order of the Board of Managers or on approval of the President. He shall countersign all certificates of membership, and shall at each annual meeting present an accurate statement of the receipts and disbursements of the corporation during the year, and of its invested funds, and present his books and vouchers to the Vice-President to audit before the annual meeting.

ARTICLE 12.

All membership fees shall be placed in a fund to be known as "The Maintenance Fund." The fund shall be kept invested. Until the principal thereof become $1000.00 the interest from such fund shall be added thereto. After such amount shall have accumulated, the interest of the fund may be used in defraying the running expenses of the corporation.

ARTICLE 13.

The Recorder, who may be a salaried officer, shall keep a book of records, in which shall be placed the names of all the missionaries sent to the Hawaiian Islands by the A. B. C. F. M. prior to the year 1900, their date of arrival, departure, death, and such other information of historical value as may be collected.

Also the names of all the descendants of each of said missionaries, their marriage, residence, death, and any data of value relating to them which may be obtained.

The names of all the life members of this Corporation shall be recorded.

This book of records shall be kept in such a manner that the genealogy of any name upon its pages may be traced accurately to his or her missionary ancestor.

ARTICLE 14.

§1. It shall be the duty of the Board of Managers to Superintend all business transactions of the Corporation not otherwise provided for, have the general control and management of the property of the Corporation, subject to the By-Laws and such resolutions as shall from time to time be adopted at meetings of the corporation, and to keep full and correct minutes of its own proceedings.

§2. Any member desiring to bring any business before the Board of Managers shall make known such business in a written application to some member of the Board, who shall lay it before the Board for its action.

§3. The Board of Managers shall decide upon all applications for membership under Article 4 of the By-Laws; and also make recommendations concerning the disposition of the funds of the corporation.

§4. A report of the Board of Managers shall be presented to the corporation at each meeting.

§5. Any vacancies occurring in the Board of Managers, by death or otherwise, may be filled by the President.

§6. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the President at his discretion, or by three members thereof. The Secretary of the Board shall note the members present at each meeting. Three members with the President, or a majority of the Board, shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE 15.

The President shall appoint a Publication Committee of three members, one of which shall be retired from service each year, and the vacancy filled by appointment of the same or of another member of the corporation. The committee shall supervise all matters connected with the printing and distributing of the publications of the corporation and shall assist, when called upon, the Secretary and Recorder, both of which officers shall be ex-officio members of the committee.

ARTICLE 16.

1. The regular meetings of the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society shall be opened by prayer and the singing of a hymn.

2. The minutes of the last meeting shall be read by the Secretary.

3. The report of the Board of Managers, Secretary and Treasurer shall then be read and acted upon.

4. A collection shall be taken up by the Treasurer.

5. Next shall follow miscellaneous business.

6. The entertainment provided for shall then be in order.

7. After which the meeting may be closed by singing.

The meetings shall be open to such guests as any of the members may invite.

At special meetings it shall not be required that the order of business laid down for the regular meetings be observed.

ARTICLE 17.

§1. In Miscellaneous Business no one shall speak more than five minutes at a time without permission from the Society.

§. In all points of order the presiding officers shall be guided by the rules laid down in Roberts' Rules of Order.

ARTICLE 18.

These By-Laws may be amended or annulled by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at any meeting of the corporation, such alterations having been handed in in writing through the Board of Managers, or by three members.

LIFE MEMBERS OF THE HAWAIIAN MISSION CHILDREN'S SOCIETY, 1911.

SYMBOLS IN THE LIST OF MEMBERS.

Original members of the Society, whether children of missionaries or elect members, have their names printed in the usual manner. The names of their children are preceded by one star, and those of children's children by two stars.

In many cases the name is preceded by a symbol in the margin, which denotes the person's missionary parentage or ancestry; and the key to the symbols is the list below, in which the missionary names are given, but no titles.

Total Active Membership 976.

Under the Rules, (Section 3, page 91,) the Treasurer may receive membership fees by annual installments of one dollar until ten dollars have been paid. We desire to enroll all the missionary descendants, not so much for the enrichment of our treasury as by the weight of numbers "to strengthen the bond of union that naturally exists among us, and to cultivate the missionary spirit among ourselves."
